Scorecard

FIDELITY TO JESUS'S TEACHINGS (RED LETTERS)

Largely aligned, with specific tensions

The sermon's core thesis — radical grace for unlikely outsiders, tradition must yield to the Spirit — is one of the more Jesus-aligned moves a pastor can make (Mark 7:1-13; Matt 9:10-13; Luke 15). Flagged items are specific: gendered framing of worship, faith-over-medicine rhetoric, and an uncharacteristic omission — Jesus's own red-letter teaching on outsider inclusion is never quoted in a sermon whose thesis is outsider inclusion.

IDENTIFIABLE BIASES / HARMFUL RHETORIC

Moderate — supersessionism and gendered framing

Two substantive concerns: (1) supersessionist framing of Christianity as 'the better-ism' replacing Judaism, and (2) a gendered theology of worship that codes submission as feminine and restraint as masculine. No Christian-nationalism content. No anti-Muslim, anti-LGBTQ, or political-opponent content.

FACTUAL CLAIMS & EVIDENCE CHECK

Mostly rhetorical; a few checkable claims

The sermon is light on empirical claims. The historical claims about David, Ish-bosheth, Acts 15, and MLK are largely accurate to their sources. The characterization of first-century Gentiles as uniformly engaged in 'open sex in the street' and 'orgies' is a homiletic exaggeration of a more complex historical record.

WHOLE-BIBLE ENGAGEMENT

Strong narrative engagement; selective on Judaism and healing

Jakes's move from 2 Sam 6 to Acts 15 is a legitimate canonical arc and follows James's own hermeneutic. But on Judaism post-Christ, the sermon leans heavily on Hebrews and ignores Paul's explicit counter-voice in Romans 9-11 (Israel's gifts are 'irrevocable'). On healing, the sermon promises physical outcomes that the wider canon treats with more reserve (2 Cor 12:7-9; 1 Tim 5:23; 2 Tim 4:20).

Summary

Jakes preaches on David bringing the Ark of the Covenant to Zion (2 Sam 6) as a typological precursor to Acts 15, where James cites Amos 9 ('I will rebuild David's fallen tent') to justify Gentile inclusion. His four organizing headings are tradition, exemption, transition, and opposition — though he only substantively treats the first two before closing. The core thrust is radical grace, scandalous inclusion of 'unlikely people,' and a call to break religious tradition in favor of charismatic worship. The sermon is heavily charismatic-Pentecostal in register, closes with a healing/deliverance appeal ('lumps and tumors will shrink'), and is largely apolitical. Significant tensions emerge around (1) gendered framing of worship and masculinity, (2) supersessionist language about Judaism, (3) stereotyped characterization of first-century Gentiles, and (4) implied faith-over-medicine framing in the close.

Supersessionist framing: 'the better-ism of Christianity'

Why flagged: 'Better-ism of Christianity' is the exact rhetorical register that post-Holocaust Christian theology across traditions (Nostra Aetate 1965; Lutheran World Federation 1984; PCUSA 1987) has flagged as supersessionist and historically dangerous. The sermon does not escalate into explicit anti-Jewish attack — but the 'Jews who stayed Jews were apostatizing' framing inverts Paul's careful argument in Rom 11, which insists Israel's election remains. Moderate because the language is passing, not sustained; but it is a recognizable marker with real historical weight.

PASTOR

The book of Hebrews is written to put up an argument to try to convince Jews to convert to the better-ism of Christianity... and it is impossible for those who were once enlightened and taste of the heavenly gift, if they should fall away, to renew them again to repentance... was written about Jews apostasizing and leaving Christianity.

Gendered theology of worship — masculinity as obstacle, femininity as fit

Why flagged: The framing codes submission to God as gender-mismatched for men and gender-natural for women. Jesus's own self-description is 'gentle and lowly' — the exact register the quote marks as effeminate ('play on my chest... muscles bulk... real dude'). Jesus neither treats male submission to God as awkward nor frames masculinity as something the Holy Ghost has to overcome. The disciples' rebuked impulse is precisely the 'who is greatest' impulse Jakes describes here as masculine default (Luke 22:24-27).

PASTOR

Sometimes it seems like it's easier for women to submit to worship than men because men have been taught to be macho, and it's all right to be macho. I like being a man, I like walking like a man, talking like a man, moving like a man, thinking like a man. I like to play on my chest, I've let my muscles bulk and be a real dude for Jesus until the Holy Ghost come.

MODERATE | AXIS 1 | ▶ 01:07:00

Supersessionist framing: Judaism as inferior '-ism' to be replaced

Why flagged: Framing Judaism as an '-ism' that Christianity is 'better' than inverts Jesus's own self-positioning. Jesus insists he has not come to abolish the Law, that salvation is from the Jews, and grounds his messianic identity in the Hebrew scriptures. The 'better-ism' register also flattens Paul's much more careful argument in Rom 9-11 that Israel's gifts and calling are 'irrevocable' (Rom 11:29). Moderate because Jakes is using supersessionist shorthand without sustained anti-Jewish rhetoric — but the shorthand is the kind the canon itself has repeatedly cautioned against.

PASTOR

That's why the book of Hebrews is written, to put up an argument to try to convince Jews to convert to the better-ism of Christianity... By and large, the Jews were turning away from Christianity.

MODERATE | AXIS 1 | ▶ 01:25:00

Faith-over-medicine framing in the close

Why flagged: Jesus treats physicians as a positive category (Matt 9:12), commends practical medical care (the Good Samaritan's oil and wine), and explicitly refuses to test God through theatrical miraculous expectation. Promising that lumps, tumors, and counseling-resistant conditions will resolve 'if we worship like we're supposed to' puts congregants' trust in a charismatic outcome over the clinical care Jesus's own parables and ministry affirmed. Moderate because Jakes does not explicitly tell anyone to stop medical treatment — but 'I don't care what the doctor says' said from the pulpit over a congregation that includes cancer patients is a rhetorical trade worth naming.

PASTOR

I don't care what the doctor says, I don't care what the accountant says... lumps and tumors will shrink while we are praising God... what your therapist could not do, what your counselor could not do, what some twelve steps couldn't do — if we get to worship and God like we're supposed to, and the King comes in this place, every yoke will be broken.

MODERATE | AXIS 2 | ▶ 00:32:00

Gendered worship framing: submission coded feminine, restraint coded masculine

Why flagged: Categorized under Axis 2 (gender-bias rubric) in addition to Axis 1. The framing reinforces a binary in which emotional expressiveness and yieldedness are female defaults and muscular self-assertion is the male default the Spirit must overcome. Du Mez (Jesus and John Wayne) documents exactly this rhetorical move as a durable driver of gendered dysfunction in evangelical and charismatic spaces. Jakes is not weaponizing the frame against women — but he is installing a gender hierarchy in the spiritual register ('women find this easier') that the Gospel portrait of Jesus does not sustain.

LOW AXIS 1

(absent from a sermon on radical grace and outsider inclusion)

Notably absent: Jesus's own outsider-inclusion sayings in a sermon about outsider inclusion

Why flagged: The sermon's thesis is that God's signature move is saving the 'unlikely' — and Jakes argues this almost entirely through David's Ark, Amos 9 (via James), and Peter's Cornelius defense. Jesus has more direct teaching on this theme than anyone else in the canon, and none of it is quoted. Low severity — the sermon's direction is right, but the argument is weaker than it could be, because Jesus's own red-letter voice is not marshalled.

PASTOR

[absent] — In a 90-minute sermon whose thesis is the scandalous inclusion of 'unlikely people' by grace, Jesus's own red-letter teachings on this exact theme — Luke 15 (lost sheep / lost coin / prodigal son), Luke 19:1-10 (Zacchaeus), Matt 9:10-13 ('I desire mercy, not sacrifice'), Luke 7:36-50 (sinful woman anointing Jesus), Luke 4:25-27 (Elijah-to-Sidonian, Naaman) — are never quoted. The entire outsider-inclusion case is built from James and Peter in Acts 15.

JESUS

Luke 15:1-2, 7

Now the tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to hear him. And the Pharisees and the scribes grumbled, saying, 'This man receives sinners and eats with them.'... Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

Matt 9:13 — Jesus citing Hos 6:6

Go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice.' For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.

Luke 19:9-10

Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.

Luke 4:25-27 — Jesus citing 1 Kgs 17 and 2 Kgs 5 in his first recorded sermon

Elijah was sent to none of them but only to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, and none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian.

LOW | AXIS 1 | ▶ 01:09:00

Caricatured Gentiles used as rhetorical foil

Why flagged: Jesus's on-the-ground engagements with specific Gentiles — the centurion, the Syrophoenician woman, the Gerasene — present them with dignity and in many cases as having greater faith than Israel. Jakes's sweeping characterization of first-century Gentiles as uniformly engaged in orgies and street sex serves his rhetorical point about grace reaching the disreputable, but flattens a historical and scriptural picture that Jesus himself treated with more particularity. Low because the overall move is pro-inclusion — but the rhetorical caricature does sustained work in the sermon.

PASTOR

The Gentiles — the polygamists — the Gentiles — the people who were having orgies, the Gentiles who were having open sex in the street, the Gentiles who were offering all their bodies to their gods, the Gentiles who the Jews wouldn't eat with... the pig-eating Gentiles.

JESUS

Matt 8:10-11

Truly, I tell you, with no one in Israel have I found such faith. I tell you, many will come from east and west and recline at table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.

Mark 7:26-29 (Syrophoenician Gentile woman)

The woman was a Gentile, a Syrophoenician by birth... And he said to her, 'For this statement you may go your way; the demon has left your daughter.'

Whole-Bible Engagement (4)

For each major framing in the sermon, the pastor's claim is placed side-by-side with what Jesus said in the Gospels and what the wider Bible says (OT + NT non-Gospel). Surfaces cherry-picking, omitted counter-voices, and places where the canon itself contains tension the pastor did not acknowledge.

MODERATE | AXIS 4 | ▶ 01:07:00 | HEADLINE

Judaism and the early Jesus movement — Hebrews amplified, Romans 9-11 silent

TOPIC: HOW CHRISTIANS SHOULD RELATE TO JUDAISM AND THE ONGOING JEWISH PEOPLE

Why flagged: The pastor presents a single canonical voice (Hebrews) as if it were the whole Bible's position, while the direct counter-voices in Paul's letters and Jesus's own Gospel sayings are not engaged. The stakes are real because supersessionist rhetoric has a long and documented history of harm.

CANONICAL ANALYSIS

This is a genuine canonical tension, not a cherry-pick invented from nothing. Hebrews 8:13 really does frame the Mosaic covenant as 'obsolete.' Jakes is reading Hebrews faithfully. The problem is that Hebrews is one voice, and the canon contains other voices that directly qualify it. Paul — writing to Gentile Christians who were beginning to develop exactly the 'we replaced them' attitude — spends three full chapters (Rom 9-11) insisting that Israel's election and gifts remain 'irrevocable,' that God has not rejected his people, and that Gentile believers are grafted in rather than replacements. Ephesians frames the new relationship as 'one new man' from both, not one new replacing the other. Jesus himself in the Gospels (Matt 5:17; John 4:22) explicitly forecloses replacement readings. A sermon that wants to summarize 'Judaism and Christianity' as 'the better-ism' has picked one canonical voice and silenced two others. The practical stakes of this cherry-pick are not small — 'better-ism' language is a recognizable historical driver of anti-Jewish theology.

PASTOR

That's why the book of Hebrews is written, to put up an argument to try to convince Jews to convert to the better-ism of Christianity... By and large, the Jews were turning away from Christianity.

Healing and suffering — charismatic outcome promised without the canon's counter-testimony

TOPIC: WHAT CHRISTIANS SHOULD EXPECT FROM GOD REGARDING PHYSICAL HEALING

Why flagged: The promised outcome is presented as contingent on the quality of worship — which the Pauline corpus and the Gospel of John specifically refuse to do with sickness. When the promise does not materialize for a listener's specific case, the sermon's own logic points back to them.

CANONICAL ANALYSIS

The canon contains a genuine healing tradition — James 5, many of Jesus's Gospel miracles, the apostolic healings in Acts — and Jakes's framing is not without scriptural ground. But the canon also contains an unavoidable counter-witness: Paul's thorn, which God declines to remove; Trophimus left sick; Epaphroditus ill to near-death; Timothy's chronic stomach trouble, for which Paul's counsel is wine, not more worship; Job's long unanswered suffering; John 9's explicit refusal to tie sickness to sin or faithlessness. A pastoral promise that tumors will shrink if worship is correct puts the outcome on the congregation's spiritual performance in a way the Pauline and Johannine material directly resists. The sermon engages only the healing voice; the canon's counter-testimony is absent.

PASTOR

Lumps and tumors will shrink while we are praising God... yokes and stronghold will be broken off the backs of people, what your therapist could not do, what your counselor could not do, what some twelve steps couldn't do if we get to worship and God like we're supposed to and the King comes in this place, every yoke will be broken.

Breaking tradition — strong Jesus alignment, weakly argued from Jesus

TOPIC: THE LEGITIMACY OF BREAKING RELIGIOUS TRADITION FOR THE SPIRIT'S NEW WORK

Why flagged: Counter-signal note, not a substantive critique. The pastoral move on tradition vs. the Spirit is one of the more Jesus-aligned moves available to a preacher, and the canon converges on it. The only audit note is that Jakes argues this case without deploying Jesus's own most direct statements on it.

CANONICAL ANALYSIS

This is the strongest alignment in the sermon. The canonical convergence is real: Jesus in Mark 7 — citing Isaiah 29 with explicit provenance — takes exactly the position Jakes takes. Paul confronts Peter in Gal 2 on the same logic. Col 2 dismantles ritual-purity gatekeeping. Peter's rooftop vision in Acts 10 makes the point God is making through James in Acts 15 — which is the text Jakes is preaching. The low-severity critique is only that Jakes's own exposition pulls mostly from Acts and from the David narrative and does not marshal Jesus's own Mark 7 / Matt 15 material, which would have strengthened the case. This is a strong sermon move undersold by its own exposition.

PASTOR

The traditions of men make the Word of God of no effect... some people love their traditions more than they love their God... in the last days according to the book of Acts God is going to restore the tabernacle of David, which means that God is about to break some rules.

Grace for the 'unlikely' — whose voices are present, whose are absent

TOPIC: GOD'S POSTURE TOWARD MORAL OUTSIDERS AND RELIGIOUS OUTSIDERS

Why flagged: Included primarily as a positive counter-signal: the canon broadly converges with Jakes's thesis here. The audit note is on argument architecture (absence of Luke 15, Luke 19, Luke 4:25-27, Matt 9:13), not on substance.

CANONICAL ANALYSIS

Convergence between pastor, Jesus, and the wider canon is strong on the principle — God's grace reaches unlikely people. Jesus's entire Luke 15, the Zacchaeus story, his Matt 9 citation of Hos 6:6, his Luke 4 invocation of the Sidonian widow and Naaman, and his treatment of the sinful woman in Luke 7 all pull in the same direction. Paul's 1 Cor 6 and 1 Tim 1 extend it. Jakes even handles the cheap-grace objection directly ('I am not saying we should continue in sin that grace may abound' — which is an almost direct quotation of Rom 6:1). The minor canonical caution worth naming: Jakes frames this inclusion primarily through Acts (James, Peter) rather than through Jesus's own on-the-ground Gospel encounters, which would be the most direct support. The picture is right; the argument is weaker than it could be.

PASTOR

God will bless hookers and prostitutes and drug dealers and liars and mothers; he will save Mormons and people you don't agree with, God will do it because he's God... grace promiscuous, grace flamboyant... it hangs around in the club at three o'clock in the morning.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. 'had finished his work before 40.' Christ 'had finished his work by the time he was 33 years old,' and 'began his ministry at 30.'

EVIDENCE THE PASTOR CITED

None cited directly; delivered as general historical knowledge.

WHAT THE EVIDENCE SHOWS

King was assassinated April 4, 1968, at age 39 — so 'finished his work before 40' is factually accurate. The dating of Jesus's ministry derives from Luke 3:23 ('Jesus, when he began his ministry, was about thirty years of age'); the ~3-year ministry ending at ~age 33 is the traditional harmonization based on John's three Passovers. These are standard, widely accepted datings and reasonable to cite from the pulpit without attribution.

'Almost thirty years they've been without the glory of the Lord' — the Ark of the Covenant was away from its proper place with no access for about thirty years prior to David's retrieval.

EVIDENCE THE PASTOR CITED

None cited directly.

WHAT THE EVIDENCE SHOWS

The biblical chronology is complex. The Ark was captured by the Philistines (1 Sam 4), held by them seven months (1 Sam 6:1), returned to Beth-Shemesh and then Kiriath-jearim where it stayed with Abinadab 'twenty years' (1 Sam 7:2) before the events of David's early reign. The 'thirty years' figure is in the plausible range if one adds Saul's reign and early David — but the biblical text does not provide an exact total, and calculations vary between ~20 and ~70 years depending on reckoning of Saul's reign length (1 Sam 13:1 is textually uncertain). The claim is approximately defensible; the precise number depends on chronological assumptions the pastor does not specify.

WHAT THE EVIDENCE SHOWS

Elements have historical basis: temple prostitution existed in some Greco-Roman and Near Eastern cult settings (Corinth's Aphrodite cult being the stock example, though the scale is debated by recent scholarship — Strabo's claim of 1,000 sacred prostitutes at Corinth is now considered likely exaggerated or confused with earlier periods per Conzelmann and others). Bacchanalia and some mystery cults involved ritualized sexual elements. Polygamy was not a standard Roman or Greek practice — Roman law required monogamy; polygamy was more associated with some Eastern contexts. 'Open sex in the street' as a routine feature is a rhetorical caricature not supported by primary-source historical evidence. Public decency laws (e.g., the lex Julia de adulteriis, 18 BCE) were actually quite strict in much of the empire. The broader point — that Christian converts came from a sexually permissive ambient culture — is defensible in general terms. The specific imagery is homiletic exaggeration.

PASTOR'S CLAIM (FULL)

The book of Hebrews 'is written to put up an argument to try to convince Jews to convert to the better-ism of Christianity.'

EVIDENCE THE PASTOR CITED

None; delivered as standard exegetical framing.

WHAT THE EVIDENCE SHOWS

The framing has substantial support in traditional commentary: majority scholarly view is that Hebrews addresses Jewish Christians tempted to revert to synagogue-based Judaism under social pressure, and the book's sustained argument is that Christ is superior to angels, Moses, Aaronic priesthood, and the Sinai covenant. However, 'convert Jews to Christianity' overstates the case — the audience is widely considered by contemporary scholars (e.g., Luke Timothy Johnson, Craig Koester, Amy Peeler) to be already-Christian Jewish believers being urged not to retreat, not outsiders being proselytized. More importantly, the term 'better-ism' carries supersessionist baggage that post-1965 Christian biblical scholarship — across Catholic, mainline, and many evangelical streams — has specifically cautioned against (Nostra Aetate; scholarly consensus on reading Hebrews' 'obsolete' language in its first-century intra-Jewish setting rather than as a programmatic replacement theology). The characterization is a common pulpit gloss but is contested by the dominant strand of current scholarship.

SOURCES CONSULTED

- Vatican II, Nostra Aetate §4 (1965)

Tenets affirmed

- Radical grace toward outsiders is presented as the heart of God's action — directly consonant with Jesus's ministry pattern (Luke 15; Matt 9:10-13; Luke 19:1-10).

- Tradition must yield to the Spirit's fresh work — echoing Jesus's own critique of the Pharisees ('you leave the commandment of God and hold to the tradition of men,' Mark 7:8).
- God's forgiveness pre-exists human mistakes ('God's purpose pre-exists your pain and your mistake'), aligning with the father's running-toward posture in Luke 15:20.
- Humility before God required of the powerful ('the more important you are perceived to be... the more important it is that you cast your crowns at the feet of Jesus') — echoing Luke 14:11 and Matt 23:12.
- Exposition of 2 Sam 6 and Acts 15 is textually grounded; James's citation of Amos 9 as the rationale for Gentile inclusion is rendered faithfully.

Counter-signals

- No named-party political content; no voting guidance; no 'Christianity under attack' jeremiad.
- Explicitly inclusive list of whom God saves: 'hookers and prostitutes and drug dealers and liars and mother[s]... Mormons and people you don't agree with.'
- Self-aware critique of church culture: 'Church makes me sick anyway — the folks always sitting in judgment.'
- Explicit pastoral critique of expelling sinners: 'we got to stop putting people out of the church; we got to disciple them.'
- Explicit rejection of cheap-grace antinomianism: 'I am not saying we should continue in sin that grace may abound.'
- No anti-Muslim, anti-LGBTQ, anti-immigrant, or Christian-nationalist content.
- Affirmation of MLK as a rule-breaker against both white and Black traditional resistance — historically honest.

[00:00:00] [Music] [Applause] I'm going to be reading in 2nd Samuel 6:14 through 23 so I want you to get that and hold it but my first verse I'm gonna use this in acts 15 13 through 18 now if you're still carrying a Bible you

[00:00:30] can do that but if you use it you're falling see phones have limitations it will either do one or the other it will not do both so some of y'all are trying to figure out how to save the one scripture and be ready for the other one I understand the problem in acts 15 13 through 18 out of the NIV I'm going to read that one first and I just want to set it up a little bit the disciples are

[00:01:00] meeting in Jerusalem the church has been established and they're running into problems all good things running the problems just because it runs into a problem doesn't mean it's not good you can't throw away everything just because you hit a tough spot whether it's a marriage a job a career or ministry you're going to go through something you're not here to get God to warranty you against going through something you just want to go through it and come out

[00:01:30] on the other side they're trying to figure out and I'm going to get into this more deeply they're trying to figure out the the the Christian message is not flourishing quite honestly amongst the Jews as well as it is amongst the Gentiles and so these unlikely people are getting saved these aren't likely people these heathens these idolatrous people with no church ordered no church protocol are getting saved and they don't have any rules or

[00:02:00] religion or background they haven't been circumcised they're trying to figure out what to do about it and so they're having a discussion about it and and then acts 15 13 through 18 the reason I want you to read this text is because if you don't read this text you're going to think all that I'm teaching about the tabernacle of David is just historical information nice to know but what does that have to do with me but what I want you to see before

[00:02:30] this is over said I'm really teaching eschatology what is eschatology eschatology is a fancy word for the end of all things how everything is going to end and Davis tabernacle fits into the prophetic age that we are in right now and I'm gonna prove it to you this verse oh this is good when they finished acts 1513 when they

[00:03:00] finished James spoke up brothers he said listen to me Simon has described to us how love first intervened to choose a people for his name from the Gentiles these are Jewish disciples having a conversation about Gentiles the words of the prophets are in agreement with this as it is written after this I will return and rebuild David's fallen tent

[00:03:30] after this I will return and I will rebuild David's fallen Tabernacle it's ruins I will rebuild and I will restore it good glory that the rest of mankind may seek the Lord even all the Gentiles who bear my name says the Lord who does these things there are you hearing what I'm saying

[00:04:00] said the Lord who does these things give me verse 18 these things might be known from a long ago God is trying to show you something say man somebody now let's go to 2nd Samuel

[00:04:30] some y'all have read this message Vietnam has to did a lot of reading this morning I got the comp and see you real all week I leave read this morning this morning we pick back up where we left off we're right at this moment that David has left the house of obed-edom and said I want the glory back I'm not gonna reassign my responsibilities of my destiny to

[00:05:00] somebody else and what you get the blessing that was meant for me I want the glory of the Lord bad enough to get over to get out of my feelings I'm gonna get out of my feelings and I'm gonna get what God has for me and he gets the Ark of the Covenant back and this is a duplicate of the Ark of the company he gets the Ark of the Covenant back which represents the very presence

[00:05:30] of God and man this time he does whatever it takes whatever it takes to bring back the glory verse 14 worrying a living ephod David was dancing before the Lord with all his might he wasn't just dancing before the Lord you know let the glory of the Lord it wasn't even like that he

[00:06:00] was dancing like he lost his mind with all his might now you're talking about David is it not only is he a musician he's an athlete how do you know he's an athlete he's a warrior he's a fighter he's used to fighting on the battlefield so when David danced with all his might his might was a lot of Mike he went like no he danced before the Lord with all his what oh yeah he danced with all his

[00:06:30] might while he and all Israel were bringing up the Ark of the Lord with shouts and the sound of trumpets everybody was in it everybody was shouting or they were born or they were sounding trumpets or they were sounding trumpets as the Ark of the Lord was entering the City of David Mykel daughter of Saul watched from a window and when she saw King David leaping and dancing before the Lord she

[00:07:00] despised him in her heart they brought the Ark of the Lord and set it in its place inside the tent that David had pitched for it and David sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings before the Lord after he had finished sacrificing the burnt offerings and fellowship offerings he blessed the people in the name of the Lord Almighty then he gave a loaf of bread a cake of dates and a cake of raisins to each person in the whole crowd of the

[00:07:30] Israelites both men and women and all the people went to their home when David returned home to bless his house my cowslips was stuck out basically Mike Harold author of Saul came out to meet him and said how the king of Israel has displeased distinguish himself today going around half-naked in full view of the slave girls of his service as any

[00:08:00] vulgar fellow would do made a fool of yourself dancing out of your clothes I was embarrassed to call you my husband you look like a fool half naked in front of the service David said to my care it was before the Lord

[00:08:30] it wasn't about the slave girls and it wasn't about you and I don't care what you think about my praise and I don't care what I look like and I don't care how you talk about me and I don't care what's over your mind it was before the Lord who chose me

rather than your father or anyone from his house when he appointed me ruler over the Lord's people Israel I will celebrate before

[00:09:00] the Lord as a good shot moment right there I will become even more undignified than this if he was embarrassed before you ain't seen nothing yet and I will be humiliated in my own eyes but by these slave girls just buzz off I will be held in honor and Mykel daughter of Saul had no

[00:09:30] children to the day of her death because of her mouth [Music] [Applause] with you Stuart praising God and somebody starts fighting appraiser God has a way of punishing him you don't have to punish him you don't have to punish him David was excited because he got back what Saul's never valued he got

[00:10:00] the Ark of the Covenant back and he took over the leadership of Israel and he was dancing before the Lord because he was getting things back in their rightful place again anybody feel good about giving things back is the rightful place and besides it was a coronation it was an installation it was a celebration moment because unto Israel it really meant that they got their king back they got the king back they got their order back they

[00:10:30] got their head back Eli's head has called back in the place they got their vision back they got the revelation back they got their anointing my that ought to make somebody celebrate it and so before I go any further in the message I want you to do this and after you do this you can sit out I'll go into the word but I want to deputize you to create a celebrated moment in this place

[00:11:00] I want you to let the devil know that you are not kingless you are not happy [Applause]

[00:11:30] yeah you're yeah with your help [Applause] good at the dining room table everything but have worth praising in the president of his power praising on the throne who dare to harm crazy

[00:12:00] and if anybody wants to know why you can't touch ten people to tell them the king is coming the king is coming the king the king the king the king is coming the king is coming

[00:12:30] [Applause] [Music] [Applause] [Music] [Applause] [Music]

[00:13:00] [Applause] [Music]

[00:13:30] [Applause] [Music] [Applause] the marketplace is empty no more traffic in the streets know what busy housewives

[00:14:00] she's still late there's no debate

[00:14:30] who work on earth has been suspended yeah the King comes through the gate his car the trumpet sounding

[00:15:00] [Music]

[00:15:30] his coming praise gone [Music]

[00:16:00] happy places those whose lives has been reading broken homes that has been mended those from prison he [Music]

[00:16:30] they stand those who are crippled right through

[00:17:00] [Music] just for the trumpets [Music]

[00:18:00] see the March is wrong all the few have God's truths spell seeing have seen and wrong

[00:18:30] now Heaven's Cranston is fall in place [Music] heavens

[00:19:30] [Music] [Applause] [Music] [Applause]

[00:20:30] [Music] [Applause] [Music]

[00:21:00] [Applause] [Music] there won't be any in school today the school is closed the bakeries are closed all the restaurants and eating places are all closed everyone has come out of their normalities because the

[00:21:30] king is coming [Music] refreshing in the streets of a gathering of crowds and masses of people because they people who have lost their king have not found they have endured the ambiguity of not having a king in their lives at one time they had the king they

[00:22:00] had a king named Saul Saul had fallen on his sword and he was dead Saul and his heir apparent Jonathan also did four of his siblings were also dead the only one left to lead out of the house of Saul was ish machette he didn't know anything about being the King for

[00:22:30] two years after the death of Saul is machetes to power but he really wasn't in power Abner solves uncle was really running things the had the same its Michelle with it if anything was just a finger hit he was a puppet King he was a weak King and whenever you're upon the weak leadership

[00:23:00] whenever Europe under weak leadership it affects everyday Israel was divided Judah was on one side they had a king their King was David Israel had nobody but he is no chef and then eventually they didn't have him because Abner got sick of the super chef and before it was over he is Bashar for dead but an agreement had been worked out over in a corner that David the king of Judah

[00:23:30] would become the king of Israel so school's out today the bakeries are closed restaurants are not opened this is the bay and he can be heard coming he's not quietly coming he's coming in opulence he's coming loudly and rapidly he's

[00:24:00] coming with the sound of trumpets and bugle boy he's coming with rhythm and dancing and jumping he's coming with the Ark of the Covenant that they had not seen for years almost thirty years they've been without the glory of the Lord they'd had religion but they'd had no glory of the Lord and whenever you have religion but you have no glory all kind of stuff starts happening in

[00:24:30] your life and you go through hell and high water Saul had fallen on the sword killed himself and dad Jonathan is dead before his four brothers are dead mephibosheth Jonathan's son has been dropped by a nurse and crippled in his feet and gone down the load of our all hell is breaking loose there's trouble coming from every direction and they're trying to figure out can David do this and they're here he come

[00:25:00] here he comes down the road dancing out of his clothes he was dancing out of his clothes when I left off Sunday he was dancing out of his clothes the priests were bringing back the Ark of the Covenant and King David was in front and he was coming out of his clothes and he was dancing before God and celebrating him he was dancing with all of his light he was dancing with all of his force and all of his power because that which was

[00:25:30] a far off had been brought nigh he had been anointed to be king over Israel years ago it takes years for certain prophecies to come to pass that's why the Bible says so division Terry wait for it in the end it shall speak not lie David is a revolutionary he's his power for his mind he said he's a revolutionary he's 30 years old and he's dancing with force and power in the

[00:26:00] presence of God he's dancing with all of his might and all of his strength because that oil from Samuel pouring on his head has finally come to pass when God anoints you for something it could have been years ago but if you keep on walking everything God showed you is going to come to pass my god he had finally become king he was king over Israel's one thing to be king of Judah

[00:26:30] to see half of the prophecy fulfilled but now he sees the fulfillment of the entire prophecy you know how it is when God is promised for something and every devil in hell and told you is not going to happen and then a sudden turn of events happens and everything shifts and it starts coming into place and suddenly you recognize this is my eyelid this is my moment this is my suction and David is coming with with David coming to the kingdom with David coming into power

[00:27:00] there's a switch of tribes for Saul had been of the tribe of Benjamin the David was of the tribe of Judah the shift from Benjamin to Judah is significant Judah means praise praise has taken over the leadership of the entire nation of Israel and David had to live up to his name since he was from the tribe of Judah if they didn't do anything else right they knew how to

[00:27:30] praise the Lord so when nothing else brought him to power David's praise robbing the power and he's dancing before God and he's dancing with all of his might he's already met with Abner he's already made his agreement and now he's got to figure out how to bring back the glory and yes he made mistakes and yes he had delays and yes he had setback but he was finally getting it together and when you are finally getting it together after

[00:28:00] being delayed after making mistakes after having setbacks you have a different level of appreciation see people who have always had it together they really don't know how to praise the Lord you have to be somebody who messed up and made some mistakes and don't feel worthy and know you have no rights and yet some kind of way God blesses your anyway so really know how

[00:28:30] to praise the Lord I bet there are few people in this room that have been through enough that you really understand and so Damon is bringing his dance and David is bringing his leadership to Israel he's bringing his power to Israel he's bringing his tribe to Israel he's bringing the seed of Christ that's down

[00:29:00] the side of it he's bringing it all to Israel and he is dancing before God with all of his might and he starts coming out of his clothes he starts coming out of his clothes because the people are waiting for him there waiting for him they're waiting to see a king and David is their new king but what they didn't understand is that David had a king

[00:29:30] so when David starts bringing back the Ark of the Covenant it's not just one King coming see if you read the text and all you see is one King you missed the point David is the king but God is the king of kings and the Lord of lords and he is the mighty God glory to God I feel something in this place and so when you see David

[00:30:00] coming out of his clothes he knows that the greater King is standing there that will not share his glory with another and so he starts coming out of all of his accomplishing all of his regalia all of this and all of that I got to come out of all of it because I'm bringing back the King of Kings you might be important from 9:00 to 5:00 Monday through Friday but when you come in this

[00:30:30] household Sunday morning you need to come out of your titles glory to God warn your neighbor to chill sure to tell him I'm getting red strip myself I might be the mayor on Monday but today I blow strip myself because I'm standing in the presence of a greater team and a greater power I might be the chief of money but right now I'm

[00:31:00] just a child of God crawling over the name of the Lord I might have power during the week but the greater one is behind me and I humbled myself before I strip myself I come out of myself I come I don't need it I don't have to have it I'm coming out of it I feel a praise about to hit me feel a little morning about to erupted in this place

[00:31:30] that's we're in will say come out of it [Applause] come out of it come out of it come out of it come out of it come out of this grand attitude come out of this righteous attitude come out of the Supreme attitude come out of this area don't you understand that you're in the presence of the king of kings and the Lord of lords as the mighty God and the

> [00:32:00] everlasting father let the redeemed of the Lord yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah sometimes it seems like it's easier for women to submit to worship than men because men have been taught to be macho → Gendered theology of worship — masculinity as obstacle, femininity as fit; Gendered worship framing: submission coded feminine, restraint coded masculine

> [00:32:30] and it's all right to be macho I like being a man I like walking like a man talking like a man moving like a man thinking like a man I like to play on my chest I've let my muscles bulk and be a real dude for Jesus until the Holy Ghost come when the Holy Ghost → Gendered theology of worship — masculinity as obstacle, femininity as fit; Gendered worship framing: submission coded feminine, restraint coded masculine

[00:33:00] the Bible said let everything that has breath praise ye the Lord so away with your motto away with your degree away with how much money you make let everything that have breath

[00:33:30] the more important you are perceived to be the more successful you become the more wealthy you become the more important it is that you cast your crowns at the feet of Jesus because if you don't pass your crown that means you worship your crown and God will not share his glory with another so the higher you go the more important every promotion every advance every

[00:34:00] opportunity you need to come in this place dancing and leaping with all of your might to let God know that I will not let any promotion go to my head I will bless the Lord at all times I just need about three minutes of praise right now

[00:34:30] [Music] you gotta pass this test if God's gonna

[00:35:00] really bless you you can't be acted important you gotta pass this test you got to be able to live in the penthouse and you lay prostrate in the floor you gotta be able to drive a pause and then dance in your pending suit if God can trust you he'll open up the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing

[00:35:30] tell your neighbor I'm not too hot appraiser I'm not too rich to raise it and not too conservative to praise it and not to introverted to crazy ah the key is coming that he is coming the king is coming the king is coming

[00:36:00] the king is coming

[00:36:30] appraiser my appraiser my pleasure appraisal inappropriate are present on the floor presently the Cadillac or president of both lenses prison well historic my business premium would unprofitable appraising will avenge my master's degree appraised it with my doctoral degree I guess my catch my privacy I catch

[00:37:00] myself he is the king of peace let every key in here give him glory [Applause]

[00:37:30] and now we see now we see why God has called David you remember he told Samuel I found a man who is after keep playing

[00:38:00] it I found a man who is after my I found a man who was sick man I found a man who will go get my and bring it back to its rightful place as the closer they got to Zion the closer they got to a heart

[00:38:30] transplant to a leadership transplant to a theocracy they're bringing God back to his people Oh y'all don't hear what I'm saying you wanted a transplant you're watching a hook-up you're wanting a connection you watching the priest moving in the power of the Holy Spirit as the Bible said that the priests are making big step

[00:39:00] this is the word of the Lord this years go stretch [Applause] you better start stretching for it now because in order to keep pace give me my heartbeat in order to keep pace with the rhythm that God is making you gonna have

[00:39:30] to make some big steps and the priest start making big steps in order finish in time you got to make big steps I want to talk to somebody that's been behind and you think you should have been further than you are right now God is about to redeem the time and you're about to make some

[00:40:00] [Music] they are going from a monarchy to a theocracy when the argument covenant comes back that is God coming back to his rightful place the reason he had judges in the first place is that he

[00:40:30] thought himself to be king over Israel he only gave him a man because they asked for one and that man had gotten them in trouble and now as David brings back the Ark of the Covenant it is not just that David is becoming king over Israel it is that God is becoming king over Israel watch this kid I cannot teach this as Laurie David brings the

[00:41:00] Ark of the Covenant I'm gonna talk to you about four things today I'm gonna talk to you about four things glory to God I love to teach I'm gonna talk to you about four things I'm gonna talk to you about tradition I'm gonna talk to you about exemption I'm gonna talk to you about transition and I'm gonna talk to you about

[00:41:30] opposition let's go back to him again these are the four things I want you to get out of today number one we're gonna talk about tradition number two we're gonna talk about exemption number three we're gonna talk about transition and number four we're going to talk about opposition and when I finish I'm gonna tie together every scripture everything I brought up everything I started with everything that you saw every horn that

[00:42:00] blew every song that saying the five finish today do you hear what I'm saying you see david bringing the Ark of the Covenant back it's not just a return of a theocracy it is it is deeper than that it is the scandalous defiance of tradition it is the scandalous defiance

[00:42:30] of tradition because tradition mandated that the Ark of the Covenant should go into Moses tabernacle which existed on Mount Gibeah but David does not bring the Ark of the Covenant to its traditional place not with the outer court in the inner court and the Holies of Holies and all that I've taught you about where the Ark of the Covenant should be behind the veil that means

[00:43:00] that if the Ark of the Covenant was not behind the veil for the last 20 plus years Israel has been worshipping before an empty veil dead religion ceremonies and washings and cleanses and all of the goats and all of the peace offerings of all of the wave are free and all of the bring offerings meant nothing because a Chabad

[00:43:30] the glory of the Lord has departed I don't care how big your church is I don't care how many doctorates your pastors got I don't care how great your choir sings if the glory has departed then everything else leaves nothing at all you know what sets you apart as musicians from all the other musicians who play in all the clubs and play for

[00:44:00] all the singers all over the world it is not a lack of skill you got that it is not a lack of ability you got that you can play anywhere you can do anything but what gives you distinction it's when you play until the glory of the Lord gets in your fingers and all of a sudden you got tears coming down your face and you're playing becomes worship unto God that's what sets you apart that's what the performers will never be able to do

[00:44:30] they will never be able to summon the power of God to fall in a place under the anointing of the Holy Spirit shout somebody there will be many many institutions at worship because today is Sunday but there is no glory they will have pageantry they will have elegance they will inspire you with enticing words for

[00:45:00] you to contemplate on your ride back home they will speak to you out of the volume of the extreme vocabulary and they will linguistically construct ideologies that are so profound that it muffles your mind but there is I would rather have somebody saying just dad in the other and bring the glory of the Lord down in a place but the devil I

[00:45:30] fight today I need the glory [Applause] David does not bring the Ark of the Covenant to its traditional place he brings it to a one-room tent no outer Court no no door with blue and purple and red no brazen altar no brazen Laver no

> [00:46:00] ceremonial washings and cleansing 'he's no altar of incest no table of shewbread none of that no priest standing before veiled no veil standing before the glory he let them have their traditions because the traditions of me and make the Word of God of no effect say that again the traditions of men make the Word of God of no effect some people love their traditions more than they love their God they love their → Breaking tradition — strong Jesus alignment, weakly argued from Jesus

> [00:46:30] denomination more than they love their God they love their organization more than they love God but in the last days according to the book of Acts God is going to restore the tabernacle of David which means that God is about to break some rules he's about to go against the status quo he's about to come against orthodoxy and any ology and that bad it's familiar he is about to break tradition → Breaking tradition — strong Jesus alignment, weakly argued from Jesus

[00:47:00] David was 30 years old he was just right to great tradition it always takes youth now don't get tied up on me all my hair is great so I don't have no problem with getting older but you must admit throughout history whenever there was a tradition to be broken it was always a young person to challenge it you must admit that Christ had finished his work

[00:47:30] by the time he was 33 years old that Christ began his ministry at 30 that day that began his ministry at 30 that dr. King had finished his work before 40 it always takes a young radical mind to do what other folks said couldn't be done I want to raise up some rule-breaking people who are radical enough to do something absolutely amazing radical people of all ages make some noise in

[00:48:00] his head [Applause] write the scripture down I won't go to this chronicles 21 27 through 30 this is this is where business is going on its usual and lambs are screaming and blood is flowing in the pants and the smoke of the burning flesh can be smelled this is

[00:48:30] the former move of God Moses Tabernacle is now the former move of God Davis Tabernacle is the latter move of God Moses Tabernacle is where God was Davis Tabernacle is where God is most people build a denomination around where God used to be they named the

[00:49:00] denomination after what they last saw 200 years ago Bishop Willie wax stood on the corner of 5th and 9th and the power God fell and that's where we started and you're still right there I don't want to be where God was I don't want to be caught doing what God used to do I don't want to be a has-been give us this day

[00:49:30] [Applause] if you're not there anymore I'm out of there y'all don't hear what I'm saying I choose my church by the glory I don't want to be where God used to be back with mother Wilson laid the first brick of the corner of the church and so the first sweet potato pie

[00:50:00] I want to be where God is right now I want to be flowing into what God is going right now and David is scandalous with this thing his scandalous with this thing because he breaks tradition he breaks tradition dr. King were you celebrating his birthday dr. King broke tradition not this year tradition of white America

[00:50:30] he broke the tradition of black America the churches who honor him now hated him in they wouldn't even let him come in their church I'm gonna talk about white folks I love about black folks Martin Luther King in his lifetime was a radical he was a revolutionary everybody wanted him to shut up tradition of white people wanted him to

[00:51:00] shut up because he was making waves in what was making money traditional black people wanted him to shut up because he was making waves in what they were used to and tradition will always beg you to shut up and stay quiet and sit down in a corner and be steal and follow the old rules and don't make any noise and speak when you're spoken to and sit on the

[00:51:30] back of the bus and be quiet you're a woman you're too young you're too old you took black you're too white but the devil is a lie there is an uprising of radical people somebody that they are to break tradition you are to break some rule and though they told you you couldn't do it you couldn't be in you couldn't have it you couldn't be coming but the devil is alive you may be the first person in

[00:52:00] your whole family tree to break the tradition but I feel in the morning in this place to break tradition give him 30 second to praise if I'm talking to you my grandmother had a baby out of wedlock my mother had a baby out of wedlock my

[00:52:30] daughter had a baby out of wedlock my sister had a baby out of well don't mean you gotta have one break the tradition and breaking traditions right now I'm breaking purchase right now I'm breaking strong host I'm breaking your need to fit in with other people I'm breaking traditions right now tradition it's got to get up out of here God is going to do a new thing in you a fresh thing in you I think that's never been seen or heard before if I'm talking to you give him a

[00:53:00] shout of praise right now [Music] slap somebody say break a rule [Applause] oh but you're not supposed to talk Jesus you're not supposed to touch Jesus Jesus

[00:53:30] is a priest and you're on your cycle and the Book of Leviticus says that if you're on your cycle you're not supposed to touch the priest unless he be declared unclean and you're a woman and it's a room full of men and you ought to stay in your place and sit over in that corner and keep on bleeding because the rule book says article 7 verse 4 that you're not supposed to touch it she got down on the leaves and said if I can but touch the hem of His garment I will be made whole I feel

[00:54:00] somebody breaking our ass up about the break into this place slap somebody and tell them I'm coming out there are some folk in this rule your friends will understand why you come to this church all these black people in the church it don't make no

[00:54:30] sense for you to be going over in that neighborhood but the Holy Ghost says break tradition yes'm I want to give you in that church this cup I want to release it at church I don't care what color I don't care how they say I don't care how they jump I will meet you if you will break tradition some of you have been Baptist for years but you got a break through this you've

[00:55:00] been coaching for years but you got a break tradition God is getting ready to do it at a to shake things up I came to shake things up hallelujah the God great producer [Applause] don't you understand the tradition binds you you can't sing before you read the

[00:55:30] scripture you got to read the scripture first and then you sing the song and then you say the prayer you can't wear blue it's women's thing you gotta wear ways it's chameleon something you can't sit over the shower sometimes the only way to get your miracle is to break the tradition and do something you've never done before if you always do what you've

[00:56:00] always done he will always be where you've always been [Applause] David brought the Ark of the Covenant to a place that Moses never thought about

[00:56:30] always go beyond me the student always goes beyond the teacher because you lift off where I left off [Applause] if you only do what I've done then you didn't advance anything David brought the tabernacle to a place that Moses never even saw coming he took it to the

[00:57:00] next level he brought the tabernacle to see brought the Ark of the Covenant to Zion yeah Jagr I'm right with you I'm right with you I'm praising him right with you thank you for Sheldon he brought it to Zion he brought it to the next level he took it to the next dimension all that Moses saw on Mount Sinai did not include

[00:57:30] Mount Zion watch this now David takes it to the next level the worst thing you can do is make your son be you tradition you come from a family of lawyers you must be allow you break

[00:58:00] tradition Chloe whoo who ever got that you got it so deep I felt it all the way up here or something just work loose in your belly broke loose in your spirit I will never be the same again you just broke loose up I heard the chains phone with you harlot break it somebody how to break head

[00:58:30] break head if you're gonna be alone you break the tradition don't be like the rest of them stop trying to fit in stop trying to act like of them be like them people never remember ordinary they always remember extraordinary break the tradition break the tradition take the risk

[00:59:00] - do you baby - do what you see - do what - SID - do what you believe can I come down here David took it David took it where Moses never dreamed it he takes it to Zion he takes it to Zion you need to take it to the next level you need to always go beyond your father's I got

[00:59:30] here without me I didn't have a me if I got here without me can you imagine where you are to go thank God for Moses Lake Golf for Moses thank God for Moses thank God for what he did thank God for what God spoke through everything God showed Moses was real but it wasn't

[01:00:00] finished it was real but it wasn't finished David saw something else who God David saw something else the man who started taxing companies were so smart he was so smart he built a billion dollar corporation because he started taxi companies but the man who started oversaw something that you remember when

[01:00:30] they started building all these big warehouse operations and they went all over the country and everybody had these warehouse like JC Penney's at Cedars in xx and it was awesome and then somebody saw an app when I came up we had drive-through witness you can drive through and get there and Luger pretty girl will come

[01:01:00] out to the corner and take your order and bring your hot dogs out to the car and put a tray on the window that was cool it was also big root beer marks and hot dogs good old breezy juicy hot dogs we never thought that there'd be a day that they bring the food to the house I want to anoint you to see something else see something else see something

[01:01:30] beyond what was given to you see something on what was handed to you see something beyond where you started I can't hardly get off this point you need to rethink your life there's a better way to do it there's a bigger way to do it there's another level to take it to David took a desire somebody Halle tasted desire [Applause] so now I'm at ISA more

[01:02:00] [Applause] I see some I can't hardly get off my first point I can't hardly I'm trying to get out my first one I'm fighting with myself because I can't get out my first one cuz because that's she's a mess I don't do Church like my father's I thought something else I learned what they taught me I ate what they gave me

[01:02:30] but then I saw something else I saw how to take it to another level I saw something that was down inside of me that was different was what was down inside of them you always go forward you've never go backwards Davis says I will not take the ark back to where it used to be David took the Ark of the Covenant to side and he shattered tradition he shattered tradition number

[01:03:00] two he brings an exemption that we must understand there's no way that you're supposed to be this close to the ark it's not the day of atonement the book says that if you come back close to the Ark of the Covenant other than the day of atonement you're supposed to die you're supposed to have smoke from the brazen altar that lights our altar of incense that brings you into the presence of God he's got no smoke he

[01:03:30] comes right into contact with God God had just been killing people for doing this [Applause] but David had an exemption [Applause] daven had an exemption when I first moved to Dallas a friend of mine told me at that time I lived over White Rock Lake I said I'm looking at a house and

[01:04:00] he said what neighborhood is he I said he said why trolley and he said he said to me can I be honest I'm just be honest he said none of us live over there and he said you can't live over there and I told him it's too late [Laughter] [Applause] [Music] I guess they're gonna have to burn me out to that just sign the paperwork I'm

[01:04:30] dying right over there never let people tell you what you can't do what you can't be scare you back into a hole over your limitation your limitation it's not my limitations just because you can't do it don't mean I see such a mess I have an Egyptian but this shutter double Chara it a may comes

[01:05:00] in a little shaken chatter ah come on Ivan said that in the days of the scripture all men who had leprosy died all of them died if you had leprosy there was no doubt about it you died jesus said in the days of name and all that had leprosy died but naman recovered you could be the exception to the rule I don't care what the doctor says I don't care what the accountant says I don't care what the hour I said I

[01:05:30] don't care what the tradition says I don't care what the status quo says I don't care what your friends or your enemy say I was talking to somebody about having an exemption so let me bring in this next scripture I'm in the exemption I could wait for you to get here I couldn't wait for you

[01:06:00] to get here cuz I'm ready to unload on you this morning now we're over to the book of Acts with little old test in the world in the New Testament where years ahead and they're established in the church and the church is not going forward in an orthodox way that Jesus was a Jew has preached the gospel in the synagogue's converting some Jews but for the most part the Christian message did not catch root amongst Judaism and many

[01:06:30] of them who started with Jesus was no longer with him they fell away the disciples went after them preaching Peter preaches on the day of Pentecost in Jerusalem 3,000 people are added to the church in one service but by and large the Jews were turning away from Christianity that's why the book of Hebrews is written to put up an argument to try to convince Jews to convert to

> [01:07:00] the better ISM of Christianity and it is impossible for those who were once enlightened and taste another heavenly gift if they should fall away to renew them again to repentance seeing us and crucify the Son of man afresh was written about Jews of pasta sizing and leaving Christianity all of a sudden Christianity has taken off amongst the unlikely those who had no roots in your way at all those who had not come from →
> Supersessionist framing: Judaism as inferior '-ism' to be replaced; Supersessionist framing: 'the better-ism of Christianity'; Judaism and the early Jesus movement — Hebrews amplified, Romans 9-11 silent

[01:07:30] Judaism who had not been steeped in tradition and who had not been taught the word who knew nothing about the Scriptures Street folks and hookers and prostitutes and we're catching a hope to the gospel faster than the religious people who were prophetess you want to say well the religious people could not give up their tradition to accept the revelation of who Jesus was they love their traditions too much to have revelation tradition is always the → Supersessionist framing: Judaism as inferior '-ism' to be replaced; Supersessionist framing: 'the better-ism of Christianity'; Judaism and the early Jesus movement — Hebrews amplified, Romans 9-11 silent

[01:08:00] enemy of revelation it is always the enemy of Revelation tradition always sets up boundaries and tells you what you can't be revelation will always break a rule and they held they held to their tradition and fulfill the prophecy he came unto his own and his own received him not he came unto his own and his own received him not sometimes the people you think are most likely to love you are the people who hates it and you have to find a people

[01:08:30] who love you you cannot spend the rest of your life knocking on the door and somebody who ain't thinking about you you have to find somebody who has an appreciation for what God has given you and take it to the next level somebody holler take his desire and all of a sudden these Gentiles the Gentiles the the digit houses the the polygamists urgent house the the people who were having orgies the Gentiles the people who believed in multiple gods the Gentiles who were having open sex in the

[01:09:00] street the Gentiles who were offering allure and bodies to their gods the Gentiles who the Jews wouldn't eat with they would not eat with they would not sit and to take the pig eating Gentiles are swine eating Gentiles we're hearing the gospel and being filled with the Holy Ghost while Peter yet spake the word the Holy Ghost fell on the Gentile and the jintao started speaking in turn and praising God and they had to call a meeting because the Holy Ghost was → Caricatured Gentiles used as rhetorical foil

[01:09:30] falling on people that wasn't supposed to get the Holy Ghost and it broke the rules when God gets ready to bless people he will bless whosoever he will God didn't have to ask your board can I bless you when God gets ready to bless you he will bless you he will bless hookers and prostitutes and drug dealers and liars and mother he will save Mormons and people you don't agree with God will do it cuz he's God so the → Caricatured Gentiles used as rhetorical foil

[01:10:00] disciples in the book of Acts had to have an emergency meeting because the gospel is not going as they had imagined it and Peters laying out an argument said I can't help it I can't help who's giving getting filled with all of us he said I was just preaching the word that while I was yet preaching they all got filled with the Holy Ghost and I said can any man forbid these men water we have the Holy Ghost same as weep he said so we started baptizing them because the Holy Spirit had given them

[01:10:30] some sort of exception and they had gotten feel they got feel and they had been circumcised they got feel and they hadn't kept the Sabbath day they got filled and they was eaten pork chops of bacon and the hog balls and chitlins they got feel no no hear what I'm saying oh I want to talk to some rule breaking fever rule-breaking people they got filled with the Holy Ghost and the disciples are saying oh you gotta you gotta read

[01:11:00] this when you get home you gotta read this let scripture nights put it back on the board the disciples are tripping because because God God is breaking his own rules [Applause] God is oh oh this is teacher broke I know it is I know it if you can if you

[01:11:30] can hear what I'm preaching I'm preaching next level stuff are you ready for this this is next-level stuff God God is breaking these are rules because God doesn't serve the law of the law serves that God that served the rule why would God make a rule he couldn't break then the rule becomes God he is Lord of the Sabbath [Applause]

[01:12:00] so I could heal on the Sabbath if I want to cuz I'm the CEO or the Sabbath day and I could do what I want to whenever I want to and yes I know the man got healed over Saturday don't you lift your oats out of the stall on the Sabbath day you gotta do what you gotta do I'm God let's get this thing done nope and the disciples are trying to figure out what to do because God doesn't give their

[01:12:30] permission he just starts filling these unlikely people with the Holy Ghost and the people they thought they were gonna win it's not who they want because much of life does not turn out as you planned it much of life does not turn out of a society and the places that seem most likely to receive you generally reject you

> [01:13:00] and the places you never dreamed that you would find acceptance except you Chloe way to go are you hearing what I'm saying and it has created a problem God has created a problem for his people cuz God is doing stuff that's not in their books the Gentiles are getting the Holy Ghost and what really blows my mind put my text back up there put it back up → Grace for the 'unlikely' — whose voices are present, whose are absent

> [01:13:30] here yeah what really blows my mind of all the people to say something James James sister James should say method there is nobody in the whole New Testament as legalistic as James James is the one who talked about face when that works is dead and argue about how you ought to keep the traditions that → Grace for the 'unlikely' — whose voices are present, whose are absent

[01:14:00] the fathers of this and another James J James said brothers listen to me come on Simon had described to us how God first intervened to choose her people for his name from the Gentiles the words of the prophets are in agreement with this as it is written come on after this I will return and reveal Damon's tabernacle and its ruins I will

[01:14:30] rebuild and I will wish toriel this is why I'm teaching Davis Tabernacle I'm teaching Davis tabernacle because Davis Tabernacle is a rule breaker and I've painted a rule breaking message to a radical generation good God of mercy and all of a sudden all of a sudden James says we got a receive him

[01:15:00] cuz remember the Bible says that the sign of the last days is that I will rebuild the tabernacle of David not Moses I will reveal the tabernacle of David in the last days let me tell what the last design that we have coming to the last days is that radical worship will break

[01:15:30] out in unlikely places [Applause] Catholic folks feel with the Holy Ghost nuns talking in tongues churches praising God and getting lost in praise and can't shut up young people dancing in the Spirit of God leaping up and down in the air in the last days I will restore the tabernacle of David means I will release radical worship worship

[01:16:00] that breaks all boundaries breaks all thoughts I will release the kind of worship that causes you to get heal without the laying on of hands nobody touched it nobody poured all order but you still got heal while you were dancing the lock disappear while you were praising God the glory of the Lord shipped out in the last day I will restore [Applause] will restore the tabernacle of David

[01:16:30] make some noise in this I will say who I want to save I will save people you don't think supposed to get saved I will say people you don't like I will say people that don't dress right I will say people that don't keep up with your church rule in the last days I'll feel fellows with the Holy Ghost and they got the hat on in church in the last days

[01:17:00] I'm gonna baptize them in the Holy Ghost and they don't know to put their finger up when they walk in out of service in the last days I will fill them with the Holy Ghost and they don't know a bishop from a bicycle in the last days I'm and get ready to break subpoena say so this is it so James sis can I teach this thing

[01:17:30] James says I think they have an exemption I think they have an exemption God wouldn't be filling them if they didn't have an exemption goblins development they didn't have an exemption they have an exemption now this kind of what what does Paul call it

[01:18:00] less serious grace this kind of less in His grace is kind of powerful so you might have to take this with water [Laughter] [Applause] Godse so he wants to say he kills who he wants to heal he blesses who he wants to bless it was so radical he failed him at Corinth Corinth yeah

[01:18:30] stop me stop before I go out there pull my coat he filled on my current Corinth we're doing everything and they had the gifts of the Spirit the silence we're talking they're tough and Paul had to straighten him out he had to clean him up a little bit because they was mixing it all up together they've come into the community tables getting drunk neighbors even things like they were like the cousins that you don't want to come to your house cuz they come in and tear up

[01:19:00] everything but God filled them with the holy gold they had to be discipled this is where 21st century ministries got to change we got to stop putting people out of the church we got a disciple them we got to work with them where they are we have to teach them and train them but we can't just throw them out you can't scale a fish you ain't caught

[01:19:30] are y'all hear what I'm saying because you don't know what God will do with some of the most unlikely people I want to talk to some people who got him out of time oh Jesus I look up at the clock and I got sick I want to talk to some people who have ruled yourself out because you think

[01:20:00] that you are too bad to be used and because of what you did wrong you think that God can't use you and I came to tell you your role your role I came to tell you that the blood reaches to the highest mountain and it flows to the lowest I came to tell you that it's time for you to stop being ashamed of yourself and recognize that God still loves you and He has a plan for your

[01:20:30] life and I know you're a Gentile but gotta fill you with the Holy Ghost and he'll deliver you and he'll set you free I got a word for you I got a word for you I am not condoning your mischief I'm not calling you're wrong right but I'm telling you that God's purpose pre-exists your pain and your mistake and your struggle and God already knows your secrets

[01:21:00] telling you the truth and I'm telling you that you're harder on yourself than God that you have cursed yourself and God has forgiven you and that he loves you with it everlasting love and that he has a plan for your life that you need to get out of his way that the

[01:21:30] tabernacle of David is everything to you because you are the tabernacle of David against all odds against all rule God has raised you up for such a cabbages come on somebody come on somebody come on somebody come on somebody come on somebody oh I came to tell you that you are your

[01:22:00] own worst enemy I came to tell you what James are saying that the sign that we're in the last days is that God would do the most with the most unlikely people James says it doesn't matter that they're not circumcised it doesn't matter that they don't know our traditions it doesn't matter that they made mistakes it doesn't matter that they were polygamists and bigamous and all the

[01:22:30] other mist gods killed him with the Holy Ghost how dare you call what God has clearanced uncommon and unclean he feels who he wants to feel he blesses who he wants to bless he touches with me he wants to touch my God my god that's why it's amazing grace Paul called it less

[01:23:00] serious flamboyant grace thank you lord promiscuous grace that's the word from Miss cuit that's what he calls it and the Greek is promiscuous it's graceless fast its Chrissy great it's Grayson to give itself to anybody it's grace it hangs around in the club at 3 o'clock in the morning and say you

[01:23:30] want some of this is Grayson to take that and likely and do the almighty it spray said it takes the tail and making the head I'm talking about a kind of grace in a blow your man can tell about the gray said appear you in the black will bring you around on a barstool and send you home speaking and talk when God has a plan for your life I don't care you could have been a witch on yesterday but grace will turn you around and fill you with the Holy Ghost and break the

[01:24:00] chain offer your life I want somebody to give God a radical [Applause] [Music] [Applause]

[01:24:30] how dare you say who's disqualified Church makes me sick anyway the folks always sitting in judgment the only reason you would judgment is that we don't know your business [Applause]

> [01:25:00] or y'all can't handle the truth y'all don't like me when I preach the truth up in this place the matters that all have sinned and come short of the glory of God every last one of you [Applause] → Faith-over-medicine framing in the close; Healing and suffering — charismatic outcome promised without the canon's counter-testimony

> [01:25:30] [Music] I am NOT saying that we should continue and seeing the grace may abound I'm not talking about you can be saved and live just any kind of way you hear when I'm saying you but I am saying nothing that you did in your past it jumps you from being a Christian I'm telling you that the blood of Jesus will wash you up and → Faith-over-medicine framing in the close; Healing and suffering — charismatic outcome promised without the canon's counter-testimony

[01:26:00] change your life and give you a new beginning and even after you get saved God that use you because you're perfect [Applause] God that used you because you're perfect he uses you according to his purpose he used Rahab the according to his perfect house she would fight me I'll fight you right back glory to God I see God use some of the most miserable people messed up people to accomplish

[01:26:30] his purpose he opened up the mouth of an ass and preached the prophetic word and if granted use an ass [Applause] [Music]

[01:27:00] David's Tabernacle oh just please give me a few more weeks because when I get finished with it he rushes in a new order [Applause] he takes God where he had never been [Applause] he takes God out of the confines of the constraints of Moses Tabernacle and he takes him to the Zion he takes him to

[01:27:30] SIA it takes him to Zion and even all religious James had to admit that God can do what he wants to do whenever he wants to do it if I can preach but I see in my spirit this church will never be

[01:28:00] the same again [Applause] the warship will never be the same again if I can take what you're getting right now and marry it to the worship service the worship service will never be the same again if I could teach Davis Tabernacle some folks will dance while other folks lay prostrate in the floor

[01:28:30] other people will lift their hands up and start crying where other people kneel in this seat in fact can teach David tabernacle and cause it to flow like it needs to flow lumps and tumors will shrink while we are praising God if I can teach it and preach it like I'm seeing it in my sphere yokes and stronghold will be broken off the backs of people what your therapist could not do what your counselor could not do what some 12 steps couldn't do if we get to worship and God like we're supposed to

[01:29:00] and the King comes in this place every yoke will be broken every bondage will be destroyed God will walk up and down these arm and touch his people if I can teach it the way I feel it [Applause] somebody's about to get it Egyptian somebody's about to get a break too somebody's about to have a go but up South yes in this way stand on your feet

[01:29:30] I'm gonna save next week I'm gonna save my two points for next week Shadow Ball Coach at I live before Sunday Lil C time glory to God glory to God glory to God God never wanted all of this structure he wanted unique radical

[01:30:00] worship he wanted spontaneous praise he wanted people singing in tongues and singing in English all at the same time and the Spirit of God was breaking loose all over the church he didn't want you to act like me he wanted you to do you while I do me he wanted the glory of the Lord to create a cacophony of praise and orchestration afraid a symphony of prayed shabak inand halal and then to

`[01:30:30]` heal it all at the same time if I can teach it the way I want to teach it you will never be the same again let every man every woman every boy every girl express yourself to God now

Methodology

Axis 1 — Fidelity to Jesus's Teachings: findings flag contradictions with, tensions against, or notable absences from Jesus's direct words in the four Gospels. Reference translation: ESV.

Axis 2 — Identifiable Biases / Harmful Rhetoric: co-equal sub-rubrics for Christian nationalism (Whitehead & Perry's Taking America Back for God; Du Mez, Jesus and John Wayne; Alberta, The Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory), anti-Muslim framing, anti-LGBTQ framing, misogynistic framing, and anti-Jewish framing. Findings weighted by reach × specificity × real-world harm potential.

Axis 3 — Factual Claims & Evidence Check: empirical claims extracted from the sermon are compared against independent scholarly, journalistic, and primary sources. Each claim receives a verdict (Supported · Partially supported · Contested · Misleading · Unsupported · False) and records whether the pastor cited evidence when making the claim (a rhetorical concern distinct from the empirical verdict). No verdict is rendered without a cited source.

Axis 4 — Whole-Bible Engagement: for each major framing in the sermon, the pastor's claim is placed side-by-side with Jesus's Gospel witness and with the wider biblical canon (OT and non-Gospel NT). This surfaces cherry-picking (citing a favorable verse while ignoring hostile ones on the same topic) and unacknowledged canonical tension (presenting one biblical voice as the biblical position when the scripture itself contains disagreement). Gospel citations are in ESV; OT and non-Gospel NT citations are in ESV.
