

Biblical Signs that Point to the Final Generation?

Bishop Alan DiDio · Revival Nation Church · Encounter Today · 2026-01-10 · 00:59:00

Preaching text: · Gospel translation: ESV

Video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=g9xWOA3fLj0>

Scorecard

FIDELITY TO JESUS'S TEACHINGS (RED LETTERS)

Significant divergence

Date-setting via Essene calendar (March 2026 'final jubilee') sits directly against Matt 24:36 and Acts 1:7. Matt 25:31–46 — Jesus's own answer to what the final generation looks like — is absent. Calvinist-rape accusation, anti-trans sloganeering, and celebration of bombings invert Jesus's red-letter speech ethic and enemy-love.

IDENTIFIABLE BIASES / HARMFUL RHETORIC

Severe — multi-front

Stacks dominionist 'win America back' rhetoric, strongman alignment with the Trump administration over and against the 'Biden administration,' anti-Muslim framing of Iran, an anti-trans line delivered as kingdom decree, and a prosperity-immunity theology that promises freedom from depression, anxiety, and bodily affliction.

FACTUAL CLAIMS & EVIDENCE CHECK

Poor evidence hygiene; speculative claims as fact

The opening 'Maduro captured by 150 aircraft' narrative is delivered as established fact and could not be verified at the time of the sermon. The Essene-calendar chronology (5950, Essene prediction of a 32 AD Messiah) is presented as scholarly consensus when it is fringe. None of the four claims fact-checked here are clean.

WHOLE-BIBLE ENGAGEMENT

Highly selective; minority voices only

The sermon's ambassador / diplomatic-immunity / prosperity-confession structure is built almost entirely on a single reading of 2 Cor 5:20 while the wider canon (the persecution-suffering trajectory of Jesus, Paul's actual lived ambassadorship in chains, James, 1 Peter, Hebrews 11) is omitted. Jesus's own answer to 'what kind of person should we be in the last days' (Matt 25) is not engaged.

Summary

DiDio opens by celebrating a reported U.S. military operation that captured Venezuelan President Maduro and bombed Iranian-linked assets, framing it as God opening doors for the gospel and tying it to end-times prophecy. He then pivots to a date-setting argument grounded in the Essene calendar (claiming the current year is 5950 of human history, with March 2026 inaugurating the "final jubilee" before the 6,000-year lease on human dominion expires), interspersed with sharp polemics against Calvinists ("God ordains for children to be raped and molested... that's what they believe"), trans people ("the king says you're actually a man"), the Biden administration, and critics of the prosperity gospel ("the American gospel" film). The back half develops an "ambassador" theology in which believers possess "Holy Ghost diplomatic immunity" from sickness, depression, and the laws of this world — the king commands depression to leave or it will "cause an international incident." The sermon closes with a pitch for the pastor's book "101 Prosperity Confessions."

Timeline

Each marker = a flagged finding. Click to jump to the finding; hover for the title. Color indicates severity.

Findings (9)

SEVERE

AXIS 1

(absent from a 59-minute final-generation sermon)

HEADLINE

Matthew 25 absent from a sermon defining the 'final generation'

Why flagged: The sermon explicitly asks 'what kind of person should we be?' (00:23:00, 00:24:00, 00:25:30, 00:51:30) in light of Christ's return. Jesus's own answer to that exact question — concrete care for the hungry, thirsty, stranger, naked, sick, and imprisoned — is delivered at length in his own voice in the same Olivet Discourse the pastor draws from. Replacing it with 'become an ambassador with diplomatic immunity' is a substantive theological substitution.

PASTOR

[absent] — In a sermon that repeatedly poses the question 'what kind of person should we be?' in light of the imminent return of Christ, Jesus's own most extended description of the criterion he will apply when he returns — Matt 25:31–46 — is never referenced.

JESUS

Matt 25:31–40

When the Son of Man comes in his glory... before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats... 'For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me'... 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.'

Matt 25:41–45

'Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you gave me no food... as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.'

Date-setting: March 2026 named as the 'final jubilee'

Why flagged: Naming a specific month and year as the inauguration of 'the final jubilee' is precisely the move Jesus repeatedly disclaimed — both in the Olivet Discourse (Matt 24:36, the same end-times context the sermon invokes) and at the ascension (Acts 1:7). The Noah analogy in Matt 24:37–39 explicitly frames the return as unexpected, not as the terminus of a decoded calendar. Date-setting is a recurring temptation, and a recurring failure mode, in evangelical end-times preaching.

PASTOR

It is also the number 50 represents a jubilee. It was believed by the Essenes that the final jubilee would come. And you know when the final jubilee happens? In March of 2026. That's when we step into 51 which initiates the final jubilee. Look at your neighbor. Say, 'You don't know where you are.' You better figure out what time it is.

Jump to transcript ↓

JESUS

Matt 24:36

But concerning that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father only.

Acts 1:7 (Jesus, immediately before the ascension)

It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority.

Matt 24:42–44

Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming... the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

Matt 24:37–39 — Jesus's primary OT analogy for his return (Gen 6–9, Noah). The point of the analogy is UNEXPECTEDNESS, not signposts.

For as were the days of Noah, so will be the coming of the Son of Man... they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage... and they were unaware until the flood came and swept them all away.

Calvinists accused of believing 'God ordains for children to be raped and molested'

Why flagged: Reformed/Calvinist theology of divine sovereignty does not, in any major confessional formulation (Westminster, Heidelberg, Belgic, Canons of Dort), 'ordain' rape and molestation as God's positive will. The historic Reformed position carefully distinguishes God's permissive will from his prescriptive will. To assert from the pulpit that fellow Christians 'believe' God ordains child sexual abuse is a slander against an entire tradition of believers (Edwards, Spurgeon, Sproul, Keller). Jesus's red-letter speech ethic is unsparing on this point.

PASTOR

If someone rapes somebody, that was the Lord's will. That's what they believe... they don't realize what they're actually doing... This is what they believe. They believe that God ordains for children to be raped and molested. It's God's will. But you're a heretic because you think God wants you to prosper.

Jump to transcript ↓

JESUSMatt 5:22

Whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, 'You fool!' will be liable to the hell of fire.

Matt 7:1–2

Judge not, that you be not judged. For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you.

Matt 12:36

I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak.

John 13:35

By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.

Lev 19:16 — sits in the same chapter as the love-neighbor command Jesus cited in Matt 22:39

You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people.

SEVERE

AXIS 1

► 00:40:30

HEADLINE

Anti-trans 'kingdom decree' delivered as ambassadorial speech

Why flagged: Jesus's recorded interactions with people who fell outside his culture's gender, sexual, and ritual categories (the Samaritan woman, the woman with the issue of blood, the centurion's pals, eunuchs in Matt 19:12) are pastoral, individual, and disarming — never weaponized as a sloganized public verdict. Wrapping a contested public-policy/anthropology line ('you're actually a man') in 'the king says' presents personal exegesis as the direct voice of Jesus. Whatever a pastor's theological conclusions on gender, the rhetorical maneuver that prevents pastoral engagement ('you don't patty cake with that') is the inverse of how Jesus treated marginalized individuals.

PASTOR

Someone will ask me... 'What do you think about this trans issue?' And your response should be, 'Well, it doesn't really matter what I think about it because I'm not allowed to speak my opinion. I am an ambassador of a kingdom. I can tell you what the king says about it.' Hallelujah. The king says you're actually a man. That's what the king says. Well, you don't patty cake with that.

Jump to transcript ↓

JESUS

Matt 19:14

Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven.

Matt 9:36

When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

John 4:7–26 (Jesus initiating extended pastoral conversation with a person his culture told him not to engage)

Jesus said to her, 'Give me a drink.'...
'I who speak to you am he.'

Matt 5:22

Whoever says, 'You fool!' will be liable to the hell of fire.

Luke 6:31

And as you wish that others would do to you, do so to them.

Dominionist 'win America back' framing fused with strongman alignment

Why flagged: Three Christian-nationalism markers stack here at once: dominionism ('win America back to Christ'), strongman affinity (Trump administration's military action celebrated as gospel-opening; Biden administration mocked as weakness), and political-opponents-as-spiritual-enemies. Jesus refused both the imperial throne (Matt 4) and the populist crown (John 6); the imperative of 'winning back' a nation through power is not a category Jesus operated in.

PASTOR

If we're going to win America and the church back to Christ, we have to become representatives... You sound like the Biden administration when you do that. A lot of bluster, but when push come to shove, you ain't got nothing behind it. The Biden administration said a lot about Maduro and Venezuela. You know what they did? You're going to have to get something behind you that's bigger than you.

Jump to transcript ↓

JESUS

John 18:36

My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would have been fighting.

John 6:15

Perceiving then that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, Jesus withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

Matt 4:8–10 (the wilderness offer of all the kingdoms)

Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. And he said to him, 'All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.' Then Jesus said to him, 'Be gone, Satan!'

Mark 12:17

Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's.

Celebration of bombings framed as God opening doors for the gospel

Why flagged: Bombing footage greeted with 'Hallelujah' and the boast 'we are the baddest mama jamas on the planet' is the rhetorical inverse of Jesus's posture in every recorded engagement with imperial violence. The sermon then claims these strikes are how God opens doors for the gospel — collapsing the mission of Christ into the tactics of empire.

PASTOR

I don't know if you've seen the videos. These — this is of the bombings that took place. No American forces, it says, were lost during this operation. Hallelujah... How in the world do you go across the Western Hemisphere and invade with 150 aircraft and men on the ground, arrest the president, get out of [there]? Because we are the baddest mama jamas on the planet. That's why. Let's thank God for our armed forces.

Jump to transcript ↓

JESUS

Matt 5:9

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.

Matt 5:44

Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.

Matt 26:52

Put your sword back into its place. For all who take the sword will perish by the sword.

Luke 9:54–55 (when disciples proposed military-style judgment against an outgroup)

'Lord, do you want us to tell fire to come down from heaven and consume them?' But he turned and rebuked them.

John 18:36

My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would have been fighting.

Diplomatic-immunity theology vs. Jesus's own path of suffering

Why flagged: Jesus describes the disciple's life as cross-bearing tribulation overcome from within suffering, not as exemption from suffering. The 'diplomatic immunity' framing reverses the Gospel pattern — Jesus himself was crucified despite being the King's Son. The pastor's own soaring description of the cross earlier in the sermon ('the very flames of hell lapped upon his body') sits in unresolved tension with the later promise that ambassadors are exempt from bodily affliction.

PASTOR

I have diplomatic immunity... You're not subject to the laws of this world... You're having difficulty in your life, in your body, in your mind. That's how this world operates. You don't have to tolerate that. You have diplomatic immunity from the attacks of the enemy in this life.

Jump to transcript ↓

JESUS

John 16:33

In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world.

Matt 16:24

If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.

John 15:20

A servant is not greater than his master. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you.

Mark 14:36 (Gethsemane — Jesus does not invoke immunity)

Abba, Father, all things are possible for you. Remove this cup from me. Yet not what I will, but what you will.

Matt 5:10

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Anti-Muslim framing of Iran as 'radical Islamic binge of terror'

Why flagged: Conflating an entire 1,400-year religious tradition (~1.9B people) with the actions of one regime, then narrating bombings of that regime as God 'opening doors,' reproduces the pattern of substituting military intervention for the missionary love of enemies Jesus modeled. The Iranian church is one of the fastest-growing in the world; that growth has happened in ways the sermon's framing obscures.

PASTOR

Iran in all of their defiance to the United States and in their radical Islamic binge of terror, they have relied on Venezuela for support... that radical Islamic regime that has held power for more than 40 years... In Jesus' name, we command the doors to be opened in Iran for the preaching of the gospel.

Jump to transcript ↓

JESUS

Matt 5:44

Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.

Luke 4:25–27 — Jesus's first recorded sermon, citing 1 Kings 17 and 2 Kings 5: God's mercy goes to a Sidonian and a Syrian (both foreign 'enemies' from Israel's perspective)

There were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah... and Elijah was sent to none of them but only to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon... and none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian.

Matt 12:39–41 (Jesus holds up a foreign enemy city as morally superior to his own generation)

The men of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah.

Prosperity-gospel inoculation: critics framed as smuggling demonic theology

Why flagged: The sermon ends with a pitch for 101 Prosperity Confessions. The mid-sermon attack frames any documentary critique of prosperity teaching (e.g., the 2018 film American Gospel) as a 'subtle way to inject demonic ideology.' Jesus's red-letter teaching on wealth is consistently warning, not affirmation; binding any critique of prosperity teaching to 'they believe God ordains rape' is a rhetorical maneuver, not exegesis.

PASTOR

They're the ones making these films called the prosperity gospel and they're [making] the American gospel and they're attacking people for believing in prosperity and they don't realize what they're actually doing is it is a subtle way to inject this demonic ideology... They believe that God ordains for children to be raped and molested. It's God's will. But you're a heretic because you think God wants you to prosper.

Jump to transcript ↓

JESUS

Matt 6:19–21

Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth... but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven... For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Matt 6:24

You cannot serve God and money.

Luke 6:24

But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation.

Mark 10:21–25

'Sell all that you have and give to the poor'... 'How difficult it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!'

Isa 58:6–7 — cited by Jesus in Luke 4:18 as defining his mission

Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of wickedness... to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house?

Whole-Bible Engagement (5)

For each major framing in the sermon, the pastor's claim is placed side-by-side with what Jesus said in the Gospels and what the wider Bible says (OT + NT non-Gospel). Surfaces cherry-picking, omitted counter-voices, and places where the canon itself contains tension the pastor did not acknowledge.

SEVERE

AXIS 4

▶ 00:12:00

HEADLINE

Date-setting via Essene calendar contradicts Jesus and the wider canon

TOPIC: WHETHER CHRISTIANS CAN READ CALENDARS AND SIGNS TO IDENTIFY THE TIMING OF CHRIST'S RETURN

Why flagged: The sermon's central rhetorical claim — 'you better figure out what time it is' — is the exact thing Jesus said is not for us to know. The pastor uses a verse (2 Pet 3:8) given to suppress this kind of reckoning to do this kind of reckoning.

CANONICAL ANALYSIS

The sermon does the precise thing 2 Pet 3:8 was given to prevent. Peter's 'a day is with the Lord as a thousand years' is given as a reason for patience and humility about timing — God's reckoning is not ours. The sermon flips it into a numeric formula that converts the seven days of Genesis into a 7,000-year timeline, places us at year 5,950, and pinpoints March 2026 as the inauguration of the final jubilee. This is a 19th–20th century interpretive innovation (Clarence Larkin, named in the sermon, popularized the chart in 1918) layered onto a fringe reading of Essene chronology. The dominant canonical witness — Jesus, Paul, Peter, Daniel, Deuteronomy — runs the opposite direction: the timing is hidden, the day is thief-like, the question is not for us to ask. Notably, every previous date-setting in evangelical history (1844 Miller; 1988 Whisenant; 2011 Camping; 2017 Meade) has produced confident chronologies and zero correct returns. Pastoral history alone counsels against the genre.

PASTOR

These cats seem to get it right. And according to them, here's where we are. 5,950... It is also the number 50 represents a jubilee. It was believed by the Essenes that the final jubilee would come. And you know when the final jubilee happens? In March of 2026.

Jump to transcript ↓

JESUS (GOSPELS)

Matt 24:36 (the same Olivet Discourse the sermon's framework draws from)

But concerning that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father only.

Matt 16:1–4 (Jesus refuses sign-seekers)

An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah.

Acts 1:7

It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority.

Matt 24:43–44

If the master of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake... Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

WIDER BIBLE (OT & NT NON-GOSPEL)

1 Thess 5:2

For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.

2 Pet 3:8–10 (the very passage the sermon preaches from)

But do not overlook this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years... But the day of the Lord will come like a thief.

Deut 29:29

The secret things belong to the Lord our God, but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever.

Dan 12:9

Go your way, Daniel, for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end.

SEVERE

AXIS 4

▶ 00:43:00

HEADLINE

'Ambassadors with diplomatic immunity' — single verse weaponized against the canonical witness on suffering

TOPIC: WHETHER FAITHFUL BELIEVERS CAN EXPECT IMMUNITY FROM SUFFERING, SICKNESS, AND AFFLICTION

Why flagged: The sermon takes a single verse's metaphor and extends it past the metaphor's actual canonical use, omitting the entire NT theology of suffering (Paul, James, Peter, Hebrews) and Jesus's own teaching and example. People with chronic illness, depression, or grief who walk away convinced that their continuing affliction means they are failing as ambassadors of the kingdom may be deeply harmed by this framing.

CANONICAL ANALYSIS

Paul, the very ambassador (2 Cor 5:20) the sermon builds on, cataloged in the next chapter (2 Cor 11) a literal opposite of 'diplomatic immunity': beatings, imprisonments, shipwrecks, hunger, sleeplessness. He pleaded three times for a 'thorn' to be removed — and was refused. Jesus himself, the 'King' the sermon repeatedly invokes, prayed for the cup to be removed in Gethsemane, and was crucified. The canonical witness on Christian suffering is unanimous to the point of monotony: tribulation is expected, redeemed, even glorified — not bypassed by ambassadorial credentials. The pastor builds an entire freedom-from-affliction theology by extending one metaphorical detail (an ambassador's legal immunity) past anything Paul or any other NT writer indicates. Critically, the very chapter cited (2 Cor 5) ends with the 'ministry of reconciliation' which Paul immediately describes in 2 Cor 6:4–5 as 'great endurance: in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger.' The sermon stops one verse short.

PASTOR

An ambassador is not subject to the laws of the country he's visiting... You are not subject to the laws of this world... You're having difficulty in your life, in your body, in your mind. That's how this world operates. You don't have to tolerate that. You have diplomatic immunity from the attacks of the enemy in this life... Satan, let them go or it will cause an international incident.

Jump to transcript ↓

JESUS (GOSPELS)

John 16:33

In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world.

Matt 16:24–25

If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it.

John 15:18–20

If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before it hated you... 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you.

Luke 22:42 (Gethsemane)

Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done.

Matt 8:20

Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.

WIDER BIBLE (OT & NT NON-GOSPEL)2 Cor 11:23–28 (Paul — the actual ambassador's resume)

Far greater labors, far more imprisonments, with countless beatings, and often near death. Five times I received at the hands of the Jews the forty lashes less one. Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I was shipwrecked... I have been... in danger from robbers, danger from my own people, danger from Gentiles, danger in the city, danger in the wilderness, danger at sea, danger from false brothers.

2 Cor 12:7–9 (Paul, on a thorn God did not remove)

A thorn was given me in the flesh... Three times I pleaded with the Lord about this, that it should leave me. But he said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.'

Heb 11:35–38

Some were tortured, refusing to accept release... Others suffered mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment. They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were killed with the sword.

1 Pet 4:12–13

Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial when it comes upon you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice insofar as you share Christ's sufferings.

James 1:2–4

Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness.

Phil 1:29

For it has been granted to you that for the sake of Christ you should not only believe in him but also suffer for his sake.

'We weren't made to worship, we were made to rule'

TOPIC: WHAT IS THE PRIMARY PURPOSE OF HUMAN EXISTENCE IN THE BIBLICAL CANON?

Why flagged: The dominion mandate (Gen 1) and worship are not in opposition in scripture; the sermon's framing presents them as either/or, choosing dominion. Jesus's own answer to the temptation to receive 'all the kingdoms of the world' was an explicit reassertion of worship as primary.

CANONICAL ANALYSIS

Genesis 1:26–28's dominion mandate is real — but the canonical end-state of humanity (Rev 4–7, the heavenly throne room) is unmistakably a worship scene, not a throne room of co-regents administering portfolios. Jesus's 'first commandment' (Matt 22:37, citing the Shema) is love of God with whole self — the textual root of worship. John 4 names worship as what the Father seeks. The Westminster tradition (chief end: glorify God and enjoy him forever) and the broader catholic Christian tradition are unanimous on this. Inverting that to 'we weren't made to worship, we were made to rule' subordinates love-of-God to dominion — and inverts the order Jesus himself gave when tempted with all the kingdoms of the world (Matt 4:8–10): worship first, refuse the throne.

PASTOR

Adam was a king anointed by God. There was no worship in Genesis chapter 1 and chapter 2. As we think of it, we weren't made here. Are you ready for a shocking statement? We weren't made to worship. We were made to rule.

Jump to transcript ↓

JESUS (GOSPELS)

Matt 4:10 — citing Deut 6:13

You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve.

Matt 22:37 — citing Deut 6:5 as the greatest commandment

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.

John 4:23–24 (to the Samaritan woman)

But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to worship him.

Mark 12:30

And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.

WIDER BIBLE (OT & NT NON-GOSPEL)

Westminster Shorter Catechism Q1 (the historic Reformed answer)

Man's chief end is to glorify God, and to enjoy him forever.

Rev 4:10–11

The twenty-four elders fall down before him who is seated on the throne and worship him who lives forever and ever... 'Worthy are you, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things.'

Rev 7:9–12

A great multitude that no one could number... crying out with a loud voice, 'Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!'

Ps 95:6

Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker!

Rom 12:1

Present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

'Ambassadors don't beg' — selective canon-reading on prayer

TOPIC: WHETHER THE POSTURE OF BIBLICAL PRAYER IS BEGGING, LAMENT, OR KINGLY DECREE

Why flagged: The 'ambassadors don't beg' line erases roughly a third of the Psalter, all of Lamentations, Gethsemane, and two of Jesus's own central parables on prayer. The canonical witness on prayer is far more textured than the kingly-decree posture the sermon prescribes.

CANONICAL ANALYSIS

The sermon's claim that begging God shows disrespect for the cross runs against Jesus's own most agonized prayer (Gethsemane), the Hebrews 5:7 description of his prayer life as 'loud cries and tears,' two of his core teaching parables on prayer (the persistent widow, the midnight friend — both of which valorize importunate begging), and the entire genre of biblical lament (roughly a third of the Psalms, all of Lamentations, much of Job). Jesus's quotation of Ps 22 from the cross is itself a lament-prayer modeled by the King the sermon claims ambassadors should imitate. Cutting off the lament tradition risks pastoral harm: people who cannot pray decree-style at the moments they most need God may conclude they are doing prayer wrong, when in fact they are praying with Jesus.

PASTOR

Don't ever beg God. Every time you beg, every time you plead, every time you whimper, you show you have no clue or that you have disrespect for what Christ provided on the cross.

Jump to transcript ↓

JESUS (GOSPELS)

Mark 14:35–36 (Gethsemane — Jesus pleading)

And going a little farther, he fell on the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. And he said, 'Abba, Father, all things are possible for you. Remove this cup from me.'

Luke 22:44

And being in agony he prayed more earnestly; and his sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

Heb 5:7 (describing Jesus's prayer life)

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death.

Luke 18:1–8 (the persistent widow — Jesus's parable on prayer)

He told them a parable to the effect that they ought always to pray and not lose heart... 'will not God give justice to his elect, who cry to him day and night?'

Luke 11:5–13 (the friend at midnight — 'because of his impudence')

Yet because of his impudence he will rise and give him whatever he needs.

WIDER BIBLE (OT & NT NON-GOSPEL)

Ps 13:1–2

How long, O Lord? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me? How long must I take counsel in my soul and have sorrow in my heart all the day?

Ps 22:1 — quoted by Jesus from the cross (Matt 27:46)

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning?

Ps 88 (entire — a lament without resolution)

I am a man who has no strength... You have put me in the depths of the pit, in the regions dark and deep.

Lamentations (entire book)

[The canonical book is structured grief and pleading without resolution.]

James 5:13

Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise.

The mocked-prosperity 'wealth transfer' framing vs. Jesus on wealth

TOPIC: WHAT IS THE CANONICAL POSTURE ON CHRISTIAN PROSPERITY AND WEALTH?

Why flagged: The sermon ends pitching a prosperity-confession book; the canonical witness on wealth (Jesus, James, Paul, Acts, Proverbs) is overwhelmingly cautionary. The pastor's earlier framing of prosperity-gospel critics as smuggling 'demonic ideology' inoculates hearers against engaging the texts that would moderate the closing pitch.

CANONICAL ANALYSIS

The canonical witness on wealth is overwhelmingly cautionary. Jesus issues a woe to the rich (Luke 6:24), tells the rich young ruler to sell everything (Mark 10), warns that you cannot serve God and money (Matt 6:24), and grounds his own mission in Isaiah 58 — economic liberation of the poor, not 'wealth transfer' to the faithful. James pronounces judgment on the luxurious. 1 Timothy says the desire to be rich plunges people into ruin. The early church in Acts 2 redistributes possessions; it does not accumulate them. Proverbs 30 explicitly asks for neither poverty nor riches. A book teaching 'how to align your mouth with heaven's economy and unlock the blessings of God' through 'prosperity confessions' is sourced from a small handful of OT verses (Deut 8:18, Mal 3:10) and an idiosyncratic reading of 3 John 2 — and is silent on the dominant canonical voice. The mid-sermon attack on the American Gospel documentary works to inoculate hearers against this canonical witness before it is heard.

PASTOR

When you get my latest book, 101 Prosperity Confessions, you're going to learn how to align your mouth with heaven's economy and unlock the blessings of God. For too long, we've been propagandized by a poverty mentality. And it's time for the body of Christ to rise up to receive the wealth transfer.

Jump to transcript ↓

JESUS (GOSPELS)

Matt 6:19–21

Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven.

Matt 6:24

No one can serve two masters... You cannot serve God and money.

Luke 6:20–24 (Jesus's beatitudes paired with his woes)

Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God... But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation.

Luke 12:15

Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions.

Mark 10:21–25

'Sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.' Disheartened by the saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions... 'How difficult it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!'

Isa 58:6–7 — cited by Jesus in Luke 4:18 as defining his mission

Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of wickedness... to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house?

WIDER BIBLE (OT & NT NON-GOSPEL)

1 Tim 6:9–10

Those who desire to be rich fall into temptation, into a snare, into many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils.

James 5:1–5

Come now, you rich, weep and howl for the miseries that are coming upon you... You have lived on the earth in luxury and in self-indulgence.

Acts 2:44–45

All who believed were together and had all things in common. And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need.

Heb 13:5

Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have.

Prov 30:8–9

Give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with the food that is needful for me, lest I be full and deny you and say, 'Who is the Lord?'

Factual Claims & Evidence Check (4)

Empirical claims the pastor made during the sermon, with a verdict on whether independent evidence supports them. Verdict scale: Supported · Partially supported · Contested · Misleading · Unsupported · False. "Evidence the pastor cited" records whether any source was named in the sermon itself.

NEEDS VERIFICATION

▶ 00:00:00

"150 U.S. aircraft conducted a 'secret mission' across the Western Hemisphere, captured Venezuelan dictator Maduro, an..."

PASTOR'S CLAIM (FULL)

150 U.S. aircraft conducted a 'secret mission' across the Western Hemisphere, captured Venezuelan dictator Maduro, and put him 'in handcuffs and in chains' alongside his wife.

EVIDENCE THE PASTOR CITED

None. The pastor refers vaguely to 'videos' and 'it says' but cites no outlet, official statement, or named source.

WHAT THE EVIDENCE SHOWS

As of the sermon's publication date (January 10, 2026), public reporting through late 2025 and early 2026 documents a substantial U.S. military build-up in the Caribbean (the USS Gerald R. Ford carrier strike group was reported as deployed; airstrikes on alleged drug-trafficking vessels off Venezuela had been carried out under the Trump administration through fall 2025). Reuters, AP, BBC, and the New York Times had not reported a 150-aircraft cross-hemisphere strike that captured Maduro and his wife as of the sermon's date. The phrase 'I believe... here's my prediction' immediately follows the narration, suggesting the pastor may be conflating reported deployments with hypothetical/imminent operations.

Verification would require: (a) primary White House / DoD operational announcement; (b) AP/Reuters/AFP wire confirmation; (c) Venezuelan government statement. Without those, the framing 'today he and his wife are in handcuffs and chains' is delivered as established fact and is not so verifiable from open sources I have access to. Listeners are asked to celebrate, theologize, and draw end-times conclusions from an event whose factual status is unclear.

"The Essenes predicted in their calendar that 'in 32 AD a Melchizedek figure, high priest, the Messiah would come and..."

PASTOR'S CLAIM (FULL)

The Essenes predicted in their calendar that 'in 32 AD a Melchizedek figure, high priest, the Messiah would come and he would die for our sins,' and the Essene calendar places the current year at 5,950 of human history.

EVIDENCE THE PASTOR CITED

References to 'the Dead Sea Scrolls calendar,' 'the Essenes,' 'Hippolytus,' 'Irenaeus,' and 'the Talmud,' and to a 7-day chart by Clarence Larkin. No primary text or scholarly citation is provided.

WHAT THE EVIDENCE SHOWS

Several distinct claims are bundled here. (1) The Essenes did use a solar 364-day calendar attested in the Dead Sea Scrolls (e.g., 4Q317–330, the Mishmarot texts) — that part is mainstream. (2) The Essenes did expect two messianic figures (the Messiah of Aaron and the Messiah of Israel), and 11QMelchizedek does feature a Melchizedek figure. (3) However, the specific claim that the Essenes predicted a Messiah dying for sins in 32 AD is not supported by the Dead Sea Scrolls scholarly consensus (Vermes, Collins, VanderKam, Charlesworth). The scrolls expect messianic figures but do not pinpoint AD 32 nor describe a substitutionary atonement. (4) The '5,950 / 7-day chart' framework is from Clarence Larkin's Dispensational Truth (1918) and Ussher-style biblical chronology, not from the Essenes. Larkin's chart is not Essene material. (5) The notion that Paul, John the Baptist, Hippolytus and Irenaeus all draw on a unified Essene chronology is not supported in the patristic or NT scholarly literature. The framing collapses several distinct sources into a single confident chronology. A careful claim might be 'some Second Temple Jewish texts, including some at Qumran, divided history into thousand-year ages.' The claim as delivered overstates substantially.

SOURCES CONSULTED

- James VanderKam — The Dead Sea Scrolls Today (rev. ed., Eerdmans, 2010).
- John J. Collins — The Scepter and the Star: Messianism in Light of the Dead Sea Scrolls (2nd ed., Eerdmans 2010).

- 11QMelchizedek \(11Q13\) — The Dead Sea Scrolls Digital Library \(Israel Antiquities Authority\).

PARTIALLY SUPPORTED / OVERSTATED ▶ 00:02:45

"More than 40 years ago, Iran 'looked like the United States of America. The freedom and the liberty that was going on..."

PASTOR'S CLAIM (FULL)

More than 40 years ago, Iran 'looked like the United States of America. The freedom and the liberty that was going on there was impressive compared to what it is today.'

EVIDENCE THE PASTOR CITED

None. No survey, historical source, or comparison framework is offered.

WHAT THE EVIDENCE SHOWS

Pre-1979 Iran under the Pahlavi dynasty did have certain Westernized features — visible women's dress, mixed-gender public life in Tehran, university expansion, and U.S. cultural influence — that contrast sharply with conditions after the Islamic Revolution. To that extent the framing has a kernel of truth. However, 'looked like the United States of America' substantially overstates: (1) The Shah's regime was a monarchy with no genuine electoral democracy; (2) SAVAK, the secret police, was widely documented (Amnesty, Human Rights Watch precursors) for systematic torture and political imprisonment; (3) economic inequality between Tehran's elite and the rural majority was severe; (4) press freedom was restricted, with opposition papers shut down. The 1979 revolution was driven in part by genuine grievances against authoritarian repression. The claim flattens a complicated authoritarian-modernizing regime into 'freedom and liberty' as a rhetorical setup for celebrating regime change — historically tendentious.

SOURCES CONSULTED

- Ervand Abrahamian — A History of Modern Iran \(Cambridge UP, 2nd ed. 2018\).
- Human Rights Watch — Iran archive \(covering pre- and post-revolution\).
- Amnesty International — Iran Briefing Report 1976 \(re: SAVAK and political prisoners\).

"It was around 1,948 years from creation that 'Abraham cuts a covenant with God' — and 'do you know what year Israel b..."

PASTOR'S CLAIM (FULL)

It was around 1,948 years from creation that 'Abraham cuts a covenant with God' — and 'do you know what year Israel became a nation? 1948.' The numerical match is presented as evidence the author of the universe is orchestrating events.

EVIDENCE THE PASTOR CITED

None. The chronology is asserted as 'around 1,948' from creation without citation. The numerical coincidence with the 1948 founding of the modern State of Israel is the rhetorical hinge.

WHAT THE EVIDENCE SHOWS

Several issues. (1) Biblical chronology: Ussher's 17th-century chronology places Abraham's birth at ~1996 BC (year ~2008 from creation), and his covenant cutting (Gen 15) at roughly age 75–86, which would be around year ~2083–2094 from creation, not 1,948. Other rabbinic chronologies vary. The 'around 1,948' figure is selected to match the 1948 CE date; it is not the consensus chronological figure. (2) Year-numbering: 'years from creation' (Anno Mundi) and 'years AD' use different reference points; combining them into a single significance pattern is numerological, not chronological. (3) The 1948 founding of the modern State of Israel as direct fulfillment of biblical prophecy is itself a contested theological claim — held strongly by dispensationalists, rejected by most amillennial and postmillennial Christian traditions, and disputed by many Jewish theological perspectives as well. The presentation of a numeric 'match' as obvious evidence of divine orchestration rests on chronological selection that is not rigorous. Verification would require: independent comparison of Ussher, Septuagint, Masoretic, and Jubilees chronologies on Abraham's covenant year.

SOURCES CONSULTED

- James Barr — 'Why the World Was Created in 4004 BC: Archbishop Ussher and Biblical Chronology' (Bulletin of the John Rylands Library, 1985).
- Eugene Merrill — Kingdom of Priests: A History of Old Testament Israel (2nd ed., Baker Academic, 2008).

Tenets affirmed

- The gospel is offered freely and the appeal to repentance is genuine: 'I repent from all my sin. I turn to Jesus. I trust in him. He took my place.'
- Substitutionary atonement is preached clearly: 'You owed a debt you could not pay. So he paid a debt he did not owe' (2 Cor 5:21 paraphrased).
- The 'longsuffering' reading of 2 Pet 3:9 — that delay reflects God's patience and desire that none perish — is faithful to the text.
- The pastor explicitly affirms that scripture should be tested against scripture and that congregants should bring their Bibles ('have you ever been going to a verse and on your way to that verse, you found something else?').

Counter-signals

- Direct gospel invitation issued mid-sermon with a clear repentance prayer.
- Affirms the inspiration and authority of Paul's epistles equally with the OT prophets.
- Acknowledges 2 Pet 3:9 as a refutation of double-predestination — pastoral concern that hearers not feel pre-condemned.
- Closes with a prayer commanding 'depression go in Jesus name... we command anxiety leave' — an attempt at pastoral care for mental-health suffering, even if the framing (immunity rather than companionship) is theologically problematic.
- Encourages constant communication with God ('ambassadors stay in constant communication with their government').

Christian Nationalism marker rubric (Whitehead/Perry, Du Mez, Alberta)

MARKER	STATUS	NOTES
A. Conflation of national & Christian identity	Present	See Finding 2.1 — 'win America back to Christ' framing fuses American restoration with kingdom mission.
B. Militaristic / warrior framing	Moderate	Bombings celebrated with 'Hallelujah'; 'we are the baddest mama jamas on the planet'; ambassadors with the 'full force and backing of the kingdom' invoked as a model. Crosses from biblical imagery into real-world geopolitical celebration. [00:01:30, 00:02:15]
C. Political opponents as spiritual enemies	Present	See Finding 2.1 — 'Biden administration' mocked as ineffectual bluster; 'far left' decrying gospel-opening operations; Calvinists framed as 'demonic ideology' purveyors.

MARKER	STATUS	NOTES
D. Dominionist rhetoric	Present	'If we're going to win America and the church back to Christ, we have to become representatives' [00:54:00]; 'Jesus is attempting to restore to us divine authority and dominion in the earth' [00:36:30]; ambassador-as-walking-government extends civic dominion to every domain.
E. Civil religion (flag, pledge)	Low	No flag/pledge imagery, but 'Let's thank God for our armed forces and all those who serve' delivered immediately after celebrating bombings [00:02:15] is a low-grade civil-religion gesture.
F. Jeremiad / 'Christianity under attack'	Present	Pastors 'in pits and in prisons' under prior administrations [00:03:30]; 'we have to win America back' presupposes loss; prosperity-critic films framed as smuggling demonic ideology.
G. Ethno-cultural 'real American' undertones	Not present	No detectable ethnic/cultural 'real American' framing. Iran/Venezuela are framed as foreign regimes, not as ethnic categories within the U.S.
H. Strongman / authoritarian affinity	Present	The Trump administration's military operations narrated as God-aligned and gospel-opening; the Biden administration mocked as ineffectual ('a lot of bluster, but when push come to shove, you ain't got nothing behind it') [00:54:00]. Power-projection cast as virtue.

Other Axis-2 sub-rubrics

- Anti-Muslim framing: Present — moderate — Iran characterized via 'radical Islamic binge of terror'; bombing campaigns framed as God 'opening doors' for the gospel. The Iranian church's actual growth has occurred under Islamic Republic conditions and is not engaged.
- Anti-LGBTQ framing: Present — moderate — Anti-trans line delivered as kingly decree: 'The king says you're actually a man... you don't patty cake with that' [00:40:30]. See Finding 1.3.
- Misogynistic framing: Not present in this sermon — The aside about 'my wife is working downstairs on some miracle in the kitchen' is gendered domestic imagery but does not rise to a finding-level rubric trigger.
- Anti-Jewish framing: Mixed — Pharisees and Sadducees described as 'corrupted' [00:10:15] — common evangelical shorthand but slides toward supersessionist tropes. Israel's 1948 founding affirmed as prophetic fulfillment, which is not anti-Jewish but is a contested theological framing.
- Rapture / dispensational framework: Present — severe — Entire sermon is dispensationalist: Larkin's 7-day/7,000-year chart cited by name, Israel's 1948 reborn-nation framing, Ezekiel-style nation-decoding (Russia/Iran/Venezuela), explicit date-setting (March 2026 = 'final jubilee'), and a rapture-at-midnight imagination ('if you believed that tonight at midnight the trumpet was going to blast and we were coming out of here'). Replaces Jesus's stated judgment criterion (Matt 25) with eschatological countdown. The doctrine itself (Darby, 1830s) is a 190-year innovation; the '7,000-year chart' (Larkin) is a 1918 innovation. Both are presented as transparent biblical reading.

- Prosperity gospel / health-and-wealth framing: Present — severe — 'Diplomatic immunity' from sickness, depression, and the 'attacks of the enemy in this life' [00:43:30]; 'wealth transfer' framing in closing book pitch [00:57:30]; pre-emptive inoculation against prosperity-gospel critics by accusing them of believing 'God ordains for children to be raped' [00:19:30]. See Findings 2.3, 4.1, 4.5.

Full transcript

Highlighted paragraphs contain flagged content (color = severity). Click any timestamp to jump to that moment on YouTube.

[00:00:00] [music] Are we the final generation? At 100 a.m. 150 aircraft traverse the western hemisphere along in a secret mission to capture the dictator Maduro. A man who just days before stood and declared his defiance to the United States of America is today he and his

[00:00:30] wife are in handcuffs and in chains. We're in a war. Make no mistake about it. The administration, I believe, and this is not a prophetic prediction. This is just me prognosticating from what I know about the situations geopolitically. Here's my prediction. This was not about Venezuela. >> The Trump administration's main focus has been peace in the Middle East. It is

[00:01:00] his desire that that be his legacy that he bring peace to the Middle East. What many don't realize is that Venezuela, number one, is one of the largest producers of oil in the world. And they have aligned themselves with two key nations. Russia and Iran. Iran in all of their defiance to the United States and in their radical Islamic binge of terror. They have → Anti-Muslim framing of Iran as 'radical Islamic binge of terror'

[00:01:30] relied on Venezuela for support as well as for an escape. It is a safe place for them. If things go arry in Iran, they could always go to Venezuela as a backup plan. Their backup plan has just been demolished. I don't know if you've seen the videos. These This is of the bombings that took place. No American forces, it says, were lost during this operation. Hallelujah. → Celebration of bombings framed as God opening doors for the gospel; Anti-Muslim framing of Iran as 'radical Islamic binge of terror'

[00:02:00] >> How in the world do you go across the Western Hemisphere and invade with 150 aircraft and men on the ground, arrest the president, get out of because we are the baddest mama jamas on the planet. That's why. Let's thank God for our armed forces and all those who serve and have served. Yeah. Yeah. Yeah. We can even we can we can get on our feet and thank God for them. → Celebration of bombings framed as God opening doors for the gospel

[00:02:30] So I predict that this has more to do than with Venezuela. I predict that right now, you may not know that there is a massive overthrow that's going on that is being attempted in Iran. Right now, as all this is going on, that radical Islamic regime that has held power for more than 40 years, more than 40 years ago, Iran looked like the

[00:03:00] United States of America. The freedom and the liberty that was going on there was impressive compared to what it is today. And now all of a sudden, there is an upheaval that is taking place. And we should be able to celebrate this and don't buy into the lies of the far left who look at this and decry this. Here's what you need to know. Pastors and ministers of the gospel that have been in pits and in prisons are free today in Venezuela because of these actions. And now the

[00:03:30] door is open wide for the gospel of Jesus Christ to be preached in Venezuela. And it's coming to Iran too. >> In Jesus' name, we command the doors to be opened in Iran for the preaching of the gospel of Jesus Christ. >> Hallelujah is right. [snorts] >> Jesus said in the last day there will be wars and there will be rumors of wars. The only question is will there be a group

[00:04:00] of believers who are ready? In times of war, it is a time of transfer. Times of war are a time of flux and transition and revolution where power shifts hands. Will the church engage in such a way to participate in the power shift so that the right people >> economies shift. If you're listening to the Holy Ghost, you can be on the right side of it. >> Go to second Peter chapter 3. Second Peter chapter 3. Hallelujah. And as

[00:04:30] you're turning to second Peter chapter 3, I want you to say this to yourself. Say this in Jesus name. In 2026, I have decided >> I have decided >> to be a Bible believer. >> Bible believer. >> Say in 26 I have decided >> I have decided >> to be a Bible believer. >> Bible believer. >> Hallelujah. >> Second Peter chapter 3 and verse one. The second epistle. Beloved, I write unto you and both which I stir up your

[00:05:00] pure minds by way of remembrance, that you may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets and of the commandment of us, the apostles of the Lord and Savior. It's important for you to recognize here with this passage of scripture that Peter is placing the writings of the apostle in line with or equal to the writings of the prophet. They are

[00:05:30] inspired scripture. The writings of the apostle Paul, the writings of the apostle Peter and others are inspired right along with the voice of the prophet. And here's what it says in verse number three. knowing this first. I'm [snorts] looking here at the Rener version. He just released a study Bible of first and second Peter where he translates the scriptures and the

[00:06:00] passages. And he says, "Knowing always knowing and never forgetting first, foremost, and above all else." The words knowing, always, knowing, and never forgetting are translated from the Greek, which means which means what must be known, always known and never forgotten. Because it had been prophetically declared long ago by prophets and

[00:06:30] apostles that scoffers would come in the last days, Peter reminded his readers not to be shocked by this event. So he says, "Knowing this first that in that there shall come in when >> the last days what? >> Scoffers walking after their own lust." Here's what it says in the renter version. knowing, always knowing, and never forgetting first and foremost, and above all else, specifically that in the

[00:07:00] very last of the last days, when time has sailed to its last port, and not much more time remains for the rest of the last days journey, mocking scoffers will come. So what's referred to here in the last days is actually a reference to a journey of a ship when it's reaching its last port. It is not just the last days. It is the last of the last days. And he says here

[00:07:30] that they will be those who sneer and make fun of those who believe in Christ's coming. And they will be people who are dominated and ruled by their own base instincts and who therefore follow hard after those instincts. Knowing this verse that there shall come in the last days scoffers, saying verse number four, where is the

[00:08:00] promise of his coming? For since our fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation. Oh, have you noticed that that is not true for our generation? Things are not continuing as they have from the very beginning. The Bible predicts that Israel would be reborn, has it been? Things are not continuing as they always have been. Verse number five, for this, it's interesting. They are what?

[00:08:30] Willingly ignorant. What's what's it mean to be willingly ignorant? Huh? That's right. It is deliberate. They are deliberately ignorant. Deliberately misinformed on purpose. Why? Why are they deliberately misinformed? By the word of God, the heavens were of old, and the

[00:09:00] earth, standing out of the water, and in the water, whereby the word that then was, being overflowed with water, perished. But the heavens and the earth, which are now by the same word, are kept in store, reserved under fire against the day of judgment and predition of ungodly men. But beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing. Now, this is fascinating to me. He is giving us endtime instructions and he's talking about the deception of the last days and how there are going to

[00:09:30] be people who come around and come along who attempt to on purpose be ignorant of what the last days more particularly God's calendar. the Essenes who we discuss in the New Year's Eve service. And if you haven't watched that, go back and watch the New Year's Eve survey. If you have watched it, go back and watch it again. There are three calendars that we can

[00:10:00] look at. The Gregorian calendar is the one where we just celebrated the new year, the Gregorian calendar. In the Gregorian calendar, the year is 2026. There is also the Hebrew calendar. And the Hebrew calendar is the year 5786. But then there is another calendar that we discussed in our New Year's Eve service called the the Dead Sea Scrolls calendar or the calendar of the Essenes. The Essenes were a faction of the Jewish people who broke away from the Pharisee

[00:10:30] and Sadducea group because they believed them to be corrupted. And they believed that what started their corruption was the corruption of the calendar. And because the calendar was corrupted, the Essenes broke away and they had their own hyperspiritual. They were the crazy Pentecostals of the ancient world because they believed in healing and they prophesied and they predicted things, crazy things. Hundreds of years

[00:11:00] before the Messiah came, they predicted that in 32 AD, this is how the Essen calendar went. If you looked at the Essene calendar, they believe that in 32 AD, a MelzDCian figure, high priest, the Messiah would come and he would die for our sins. This is what is in the Dead Sea Scrolls. This is what they predicted. They predicted 150 years before Jesus came that the Messiah would come in 32 AD and he would die in 32 AD and that would

[00:11:30] initiate a day of grace. [snorts] Well, when we're looking at calendars, should we go by the pheriseical calendar, the Gregorian calendar, or these cats seem to get it right? And according to them, here's where we are. 5,950. That's where we are right now. What's the year?

[00:12:00] Let's keep reading in Peter before we get too far off track. And he says in verse 8, "But beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing." So, here's how we're going to clear this up. Here's how you're going to uncover the mystery of the end times. Get your calendar back on track. Here's what you need to know. A day is with the Lord. → Date-setting via Essene calendar contradicts Jesus and the wider canon

[00:12:30] Isn't that interesting? It is believed that the Apostle Paul who was aware of the Essenes, but of course he was a Pharisee of Pharisees when he repented, he began to look again at the teachings because apparently they were accurate. John the Baptist was believed to be from this group as well. And he goes back to this calendar and he says, "Here's what I need you to pay attention to if you're going to get it right. A day is with the Lord a thousand years and a thousand years is as one → Date-setting via Essene calendar contradicts Jesus and the wider canon

[00:13:00] day." What the Essenes taught is that in Genesis, we see a blueprint for the history of mankind. In fact, let's pull up the 7-day chart. This is laid out by Clarence Larkin. However, when you read the Essenes, it it lines up almost perfectly with what they believed. Also, I believe it was Hippolitis and Aranius. The Talmud also

[00:13:30] speaks of this theory that God hides according to the book of Isaiah. In fact, you can bring up this verse because this is the key to interpreting Bible prophecy. God hides the end in the beginning. He said, "I make known the end from the beginning from ancient times what is still to come." This is the Isaiah 46 key. If you will look at the very beginning, you will find out what God's calendar is like, what he intends to do in the end. So then we look go back to that chart and we look at the seven days of

[00:14:00] creation. Could that be a picture of 7,000 years of human history? You following with me so far? And they broke these up into three increments of 2,000 years and then the thousand-year reign of the Messiah, which would be the seventh day. And so the first 2,000 years and then something dramatic would happen. What happened at the end of the first 2,000 years, Abraham cuts a covenant with God. In fact, it was around 1948, 1,948.

[00:14:30] Isn't that interesting? Do you know what year Israel became a nation? 1948. It's around 1,948 is when that whole covenant started. It's as if the very author of the universe is orchestrating its events, isn't it? And then you go 2,000 years from Abraham and you have the birth of Christ and we have this, of course, radical swirl of prophetic events that are taking place

[00:15:00] during that time. Then you jump 2,000 years and there's supposed to be the rise of the Antichrist. And of course, the real Christ comes to rule and reign for 1,000 years. That's what we dove into. We got into detail on that uh during our New Year's Eve service. Go back and watch that for sure. And the theory is this, and we see this in one of Jesus' parables in Mark chapter number 12. We see him talking about Jesus said that a man planted a vineyard and built a wall around it and dug a pit pressing out grape juice. and [00:15:30] he built a lookout tower and he leased the vineyard to tenants and farmers and moved to another country. Another translation says he rented it. Everybody say he leased it. [snorts] >> Say he rented it. So what's unique about a lease and a rental is they're all have an end date. They all have a time. So when we look at God giving man dominion in the earth were they given a certain period of time to rule and to reign before he comes. Yes. 6,000 years.

[00:16:00] What year is it right now? >> So something is going to happen in the final generation. When you're looking at 5950, when you're looking at that date, how many years do we have left? If you go back to that date, how many years do we have left until the 6,000-year lease is up? >> That is biblically defined by the Essenes as a generation. This generation shall not pass till they see all these things be fulfilled. It is

[00:16:30] also the number 50 represents a jubilee. It was believed by the Essenes that the final jubilee would come. And you know when the final jubilee happens in March of 2026. That's when we step into 51 which initiates the final jubilee. Look at your neighbor. Say, "You don't know where you are." You [snorts] better figure out what time it is, though. I promise you that right → Date-setting: March 2026 named as the 'final jubilee'

[00:17:00] now. Hosea 6:2. Look at this verse. Hosea chapter 6:2 very quickly. After two days, listen to this prophetic promise. It's talking about the coming of the Messiah, that he will come and then after two days, he will revive us. And then in the third day, he will raise us up and we shall So if a day is with the Lord a thousand years and a thousand years is a day, how many days has it been since the Messiah → Date-setting: March 2026 named as the 'final jubilee'

[00:17:30] came? How many years has it been? 2,000. How many days? What did he say he would do in two days to the nation of Israel? He will. What happened to the nation of Israel that was non-existent for 2,000 years? Do you understand how exciting it is to be alive right now? >> He said in two days, in 2,000 years, he will revive us. And then in the third thousand year, which gets us to the 7th,

[00:18:00] thousand of all of human history, we shall live in his sight. That's the millennial reign of Christ. Oh, have you excited to get to that? >> The third day. Now let's keep reading here in second Peter. So he says very interesting all these all this deception and mocking is going to come up. When that happens I want you to remember this a day is what the Lord a thousand years a thousand years is as a day. Verse number nine. And here's what else I need you to know. The Lord is not slack concerning his

[00:18:30] promise, as some men count slackness, but is long-suffering to usward, not willing that any should perish, but that all come to the knowledge of the truth. I don't know what promise you've been standing on or how long you've been waiting. You haven't been waiting 2,000 years. I promise you that. But whatever you've been waiting on, know that the Lord is not slack concerning his promises as some men count slackness. But he is longsuffering. He will do what he said he was going to do. Now, why is

[00:19:00] it taking so long? Why have we waited this long? Could it be that Calvinism is actually one of the most disgusting theology one could possibly have? Because it's not his will that. Did you know if you talk to a rabid Calvinist, they would say that some babies are born predetermined to go to hell and they have prominent positions and many reject Christianity because of such a ridiculous view. They believe it is the Lord's will. They just they just

[00:19:30] kind of it's a lazy theology anyway because everything is the Lord's will. So everything that happens is the Lord's will. If someone rapes somebody that was the Lord's will. That's what they believe. They're the ones making these films called the prosperity gospel and they're or the American gospel and they're attacking people for believing in prosperity and they don't realize what they're actually doing is it is a subtle way to inject this demonic ideology. This is what they believe. They believe that God ordains for children to be raped and molested. It's God's will. → Calvinists accused of believing 'God ordains for children to be raped and molested'; Prosperity-gospel inoculation: critics framed as smuggling demonic theology

[00:20:00] But you're a heretic because you think God wants you to prosper. They believe, make it make sense, please. They believe that God predetermines to send some to hell, no matter what they do, and predetermines to send others to heaven, no matter what they do. What a convenient theology. And the only people who believe this are the ones who believe they are the chosen ones. Of course, they are. → Calvinists accused of believing 'God ordains for children to be raped and molested'; Prosperity-gospel inoculation: critics framed as smuggling demonic theology

[00:20:30] He doesn't choose everyone to be saved. He just happened to choose me to be saved. God bless your heart. Here's what the Bible actually says. It's not his will that. And here's how you can always tell bad theology because their response will be, "Well, actually, what it really means if you look in the original Greek, listen, I don't listen, I don't I don't The

[00:21:00] Bible says that a fool like me cannot even hear therein when reading the Bible." Here's that any should perish. It's not his will that well the Greek doesn't actually mean any. What it really means is you and you are Greek. I trust the translators of the King James Bible were a lot smarter than you. Just just parathetically insert that it is not his will that any should perish but that all could it be that the

[00:21:30] de the reason why it's taken this long the reason why he allowed it to take this long is because he just wants more people to be saved because if it would have happened any sooner you would have been left outside so how many of you glad he let it go a little bit longer so that you could get in and there's still chance for you too sitting in this room watching online you say well I don't know that I'm right with the Lord where you still have a moment to get right with God. If you're not right with God right now, I've got good news for you. There's still time to

[00:22:00] get right && right now. I don't know that there'll be time tomorrow. I don't know there'll be time 15 minutes from now. I know there's time right now && to say yes to Jesus. In fact, everybody lift your hands right now in Jesus name. Say this with me. Say, I repent && from all my sin. && I turn to Jesus. && I trust in him. && I trust him. && He is && my Lord && my savior. He took my place. && He took my place. && And I receive && I receive && his forgiveness. && Somebody say hallelujah two or three times. Come on. If you believe, it's

[00:22:30] good news. && He said verse 10, "But that day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night." I wish I could go back to First Thessalonians, but we don't have time. in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall burn up with a fervent heat, and the earth also, and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved. Here's the question tonight I want to ask. What manner of person ought

[00:23:00] ye to be in all holiness and godliness, looking for and hastening until the coming of the day of the Lord God. In light of all this, when you realize a day is with the Lord a thousand years and a thousand years is as one day, I have a question for you. What kind of person should you be in light of that revelation? Do you realize that Bible prophecy and the Essenes believed that if you did not have an intense emphasis on Bible prophecy, you would get into

[00:23:30] error? What if Bible prophecy is supposed to change your very character and your very nature? Because when you consider all of these things, knowing all of this about Bible prophecy, what kind of person should you be now that you know? Some of you are battling in your homes, in your finances, in your body, in your marriage. Let me ask you something. If

[00:24:00] you believed that tonight at midnight the trumpet was going to blast and we were coming out of here, what would you do about that thing? Who would you call? What would you say? What prayers would you pray? What would you fix? What would you get right? What would you make sure was lined up so that when you met Jesus, he could say, "Well done, thy good and faithful servant." In light of all these things, now that we know this, what kind of person should we be?

[00:24:30] An understanding of prophecy is supposed to change your personality. Second Corinthians. Let's look at it together. Second Corinthians. Hallelujah. I just saw something else that was good in Second Corinthians. We'll see if we have time to get to it.

[00:25:00] That's why I love having a tangible physical Bible, you know, because if you just look it up on your phone, then you don't, you know, when you got your actual Bible, have you ever been going to a verse and on your way to that verse, you found something else? You lose that when you, you know, you're using a device. Plus, the batteries don't wear out on this thing. Just, it just works. [snorts] What I tell you? Second Corinthians. I'm in 1 Corinthians. I'll

[00:25:30] get there eventually. 2 Corinthians chapter 5. Lord, what kind of person should we be? That's what I want to answer tonight. Verse 17. Wherefore, if any man be in Christ, he is a & & new creation, new species that has never existed before. & & [snorts] & & All old things are passed away. And

[00:26:00] behold, how many things are new? & & All things are new and all things are of & & God. When something says of God means it proceeds from God is born of God. All things are of God. Who hath now let's look at what God has done for us. who hath reconciled us unto him. Now wait, how did he do that?

[00:26:30] What does it mean to be reconciled? It means to be reconciled means to correct an imbalance. That's what reconciliation to correct an imbalance. It means to pay a debt, to balance the books. You owed a debt you could not pay. So he paid a debt he did not owe.

[00:27:00] So Jesus, how did he do it? Jesus came, he lived, and he died, crucified on a rugged beam, swung up between heaven and earth, pierced in his hands, pierced in his feet. He cried with a loud voice as his body was ripped apart like ribbons with the cat of nine tails. And he cried, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" This is what he did. This is how he reconciled us unto himself. And who is he that ascended but he that

[00:27:30] first descended into the lower parts of the earth where the very flames of hell lapped upon his body. This is what he did to reconcile us. This is reconciliation. This is how the books are balanced. And the Bible says here in verse 7, here in verse 18, all things are of God who hath what? Reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ. And look at this, has given to us the ministry of

[00:28:00] & He went through the misery so that you could have the ministry. So now you don't have to be swung up. Not that you even qualified. But you don't have to be swung up between heaven and earth. You don't have to be crucified in order to wield that power. That power has already been wielded by the only one worthy to carry it. He has now endued you with the ministry of it, the administration of

[00:28:30] it. So he purchased something on the cross and then he gave you the administration of what it is that he purchased on the cross. He went through the min misery so that you could have the ministry of reconciliation. And he goes into more detail. This is gets kind of shocking here in verse 19 to it or in the same manner. Everybody say in the same manner. That's shocking.

[00:29:00] In the same way that God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, not imputing their trespasses to them, he hath given unto us the & what? & Ofuses. So Jesus went through the work. Now you carry the [00:29:30] when you speak the power of the cross is in your words. The power of the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus ride on your words when you are sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ. The same power that he had to redeem humanity is now resident in the word in your testimony. The testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy. The very same power is in your testimony.

[00:30:00] Have you been using it lately? And here is where it gets really shocking. Everybody say, "I have & the ministry of reconciliation." The word ministry, let me give you this very quickly. Get this in your notes, means to appoint to an office as a representative. We when we think ministry we immediately begin to think spiritually. This is actually not a spiritual statement. It's not referring to

[00:30:30] religion. It is referring to a governmental office. When you think it is religion, you think in terms of spirituality, the unseen. When you think of religion, you think of emotions and feeling. But this is getting real practical. He's talking about a government job.

[00:31:00] And if you can get a government job, there's some pretty good benefits. & All right. One ministry of rec reconciliation. One who executes orders on behalf of another ministry. The ministry of defense. Ministry. It is a governmental office. A servant of the king. That's a ministry. You getting

[00:31:30] this? And here's what he says in verse number 20. Now then we are okay. So I'm trying to answer the question what kind of person we should be in light of all this revelation that we've getting gotten concerning the last days. Here's what the Bible says we are now. Then we are not that verse. They skipped the most important verse. Verse 20. You

[\[00:32:00\]](#) don't have verse 20. Do you have it in your Bible? It's a good thing you got your Bible open. It's just a lesson for you to always have your Bible open. Now then, we are what? >> Ambassadors for Christ. As though, listen to this. God did beseech you by us. Ready to get radical. >> We pray you in Christ said, "Be ye reconciled to

[\[00:32:30\]](#) God. It doesn't get any more radical than this. You are an ambassador. An ambassador. We're going to break that down here in a moment. Dr. Monroe gave us a great revelation decades ago about that. And we're going to break that down here in a second. For Christ. And so God did beseech you by us. Here's what he's saying. God is talking to you through us.

[\[00:33:00\]](#) And now I pray you. And the word pray doesn't mean pray. It means to beseech, negotiate, implore. I am talking to you instead of Christ. What kind of person should we be? Someone who can stand in front of another individual and talk to them in

[\[00:33:30\]](#) Christstead. as an ambassador for the Lord Jesus Christ, I say to you, be forgiven. >> Because [snorts] Jesus said, see, so you when you get out of the spiritual and the ethereal and the religious, you recognize something that Jesus said. He said, "Whosoever sins, you remit, they are remitted." >> Whosoever sins you retain, they are retained. What does that mean? Whoever sins you forgive, they're forgiven.

[\[00:34:00\]](#) You can't go around willy-nilly telling people that your sins are forgiven as an ambassador. Do you understand what an ambassador is? An ambassador. An ambassador. In order to understand what it means to be an ambassador, you have to understand the concept of the kingdom. The kingdom, not spiritually, you've been raised in a democracy. That's why

[\[00:34:30\]](#) you have issues with this. You've been raised in a republic. That's why you have issues with this. You don't really understand what it means to be in a kingdom. What is a kingdom? It is not a republic. It is not a democracy. What the king says goes. In a kingdom, you see, in a democracy, the people elect the leader. In a kingdom, the leader elects the people. In a democracy, the people have a say in the laws that they want enacted. In a kingdom, you got no say. The laws are

[\[00:35:00\]](#) what the laws are. Everybody say, "This is the kingdom." The first description of Adam in the Bible comes in Genesis chapter 1 and verse 26. The very first description of man, we see something fascinating that is imprinted on the DNA of all of humanity. And the Bible says, God said, "Let us make man in our image and after our likeness, and let them have >> dominion." What in earth is dominion? Dominion

[00:35:30] means to cause, to dominate, to take, to prevail, to subjugate or to rule a kingdom. A kingdom of course is where a king has dominion, where a king has rule. [snorts] So Adam was a king anointed by God. There was no worship in Genesis chapter 1 and chapter 2. As we think of it, we weren't made here. Are you ready for a shocking statement? We weren't made to worship. We were made to rule. → 'We weren't made to worship, we were made to rule'

[00:36:00] That's why you don't see praise and worship verses in this because that comes later. What comes first is you're an ambassador on his behalf and you rule and reign right there where you are. That's first. And so when Adam sins, what does Adam lose when he sins? The kingdom. So Adam sins and he loses the kingdom. Then Jesus comes 4,000 years later, four → 'We weren't made to worship, we were made to rule'

[00:36:30] days later, Jesus comes. He gets anointed by the Holy Ghost. He stands up to preach his first sermon. And in Matthew, he stands up and he says, "Repent." Do you know what comes next? >> For the kingdom is at hand. Jesus is attempting to restore to us divine authority and dominion in the earth. Adam lost the kingdom. Jesus won

[00:37:00] the kingdom back. And he now says to you, repent. Change the way you think. Turn around. Renew your mind because the kingdom is now at hand. At hand means it is within your reach. If you will turn, if you will repent and change your thinking and renew your mind, you have to [snorts] renew your mind. religious people. That's who he was talking to. You're thinking religiously. Jesus is thinking kingdom.

[00:37:30] You're thinking you have to pray, "Lord, won't you help me? Lord, won't you help me?" Kingdom people, ambassadors don't pray, "Lord, won't you help me?" Ambassadors are the embodiment of the kingdom that they represent. Okay. Okay. Okay. Okay. Okay. Nudge your neighbor say, "You better get this. You better get this. This is why Jesus came when he came. The Bible says he came in the fullness of time. What does that mean? Everything was perfect. All of history had had

[00:38:00] culminated to this moment where the greatest empire known to man, the Roman Empire had been established. The Roman roads had finally been developed. So, transportation was easy for evangelism. Now, the Greek language had propagated the vast majority of the known world. And so, now the gospel could be preached and advanced throughout the whole wide world. And the Roman government was different from every other empire every other kingdom that had ever existed. Other kingdoms would invade and they would take everybody captive and take them slave into slavery. Not the Roman government. They would come in and they

[00:38:30] would leave the citizens there and they would bring an ambassador and that ambassador would come and he would rule in that foreign land as a representative as the embodiment of the Roman government. >> [snorts] >> This is what Paul understands when he's saying, "Now then we are. You are the embodiment of the kingdom in a foreign land.

[00:39:00] An ambassador is not a religious office. It is a political appointment. An appointment by the government of heaven to represent the kingdom." An ambassador. Get this down. Get this down. Get this down. Write this down. An ambassador is a walking country.

[00:39:30] He The ambassador is not responsible for his food, housing, travel, or safety. Who's responsible? The kingdom he represents. That's who's responsible for his food, travel, and safety. If you slap a citizen in the face, it is called an assault. If [snorts] you slap an ambassador, it is now an international incident.

[00:40:00] >> An ambassador is sent, see if this terminology sounds familiar to what you've heard from Jesus, with a commission. Ambassadors represent a government, not a religion. Ambassadors speak official policy, not personal opinion. Someone will ask me, I'm in the in Oh, they're up there. There you go. They'll ask you, "What do you think about this trans issue?" And your response should be,

[00:40:30] "Well, it doesn't really matter what I think about it because I'm not allowed to speak my opinion. I am an ambassador of a kingdom. I can tell you what the king says about it." Hallelujah. >> I'm not going to tell you my opinion. I will tell you what the king says about it. The king says you're actually a man. >> That's what the king says. >> Well, you don't patty cake with that. Somebody say hallelujah. >> Hallelujah. >> Ambassadors carry delegated authority, → Anti-trans 'kingdom decree' delivered as ambassadorial speech

[00:41:00] not presumptuous confidence. Ambassadors embody the will of the king wherever they are assigned. Ambassadors exist to extend influence, not seek approval. Ambassadors prioritize the interests of their kingdom over personal comfort. Ambassadors trust their kingdom for provision. Ambassadors export their culture, their values, their morals from their homeland to the country that they're in. Ambassadors stay in constant → Anti-trans 'kingdom decree' delivered as ambassadorial speech

[00:41:30] communication with their government. Well, that would help you. Ambassadors live as citizens of one kingdom while operating in another. An ambassador, are you ready for my favorite? An ambassador is not subject to the laws of the country he's visiting.

[00:42:00] One of my favorite movies, Lethal Weapon 2. I should have had them pull it up. There he is. I did not tell them to do this. They saw my notes and they knew Rigs and Myrt are attempting to take out these bad guys, but they are ambassadors from another country. Therefore, they are not subject to the laws of the land.

[00:42:30] and he says I have diplomatic immunity even in the last of course he didn't rig or my didn't pay any attention to his diplomatic immunity he shot him in the head anyway I like those kinds of movies at the very end he's bold in this statement because he knows his position with this government he even holds up his credentials and he says diplomatic immunity

[00:43:00] Earlier on in the movie, they said, "We're going to get you. We're going to bring you down." He said, "My dear son, you could not even give me a parking ticket." Do you realize it is the truth when you represent another government, the government that you're in, the kingdom that you're in can't touch you without causing an international incident. Which of course means if they touch you, if they arrest you, it's going to cause the full force and backing of the kingdom you represent now come to bear on them and their → Diplomatic-immunity theology vs. Jesus's own path of suffering; 'Ambassadors with diplomatic immunity' — single verse weaponized against the canonical witness on suffering

[00:43:30] government. >> Everybody say, "Devil, >> I've got diplomatic immunity. >> You are not subject to the laws of this world." I'm not talking about the government. You're not subject to the laws of this world. You got to think bigger. Jesus. You remember when the wind and the waves were tossing the boat and they shook Jesus and woke him up and he spoke to the wind and the waves? That that don't make no sense. How could he do that? He's not from this world. He comes from → Diplomatic-immunity theology vs. Jesus's own path of suffering; 'Ambassadors with diplomatic immunity' — single verse weaponized against the canonical witness on suffering

[00:44:00] another world. And the world he comes from, he doesn't have to operate by the rules of this world. You're having difficulty in your life, in your body, in your mind. That's how this world operates. You don't have to tolerate that. You have diplomatic immunity from the attacks of the enemy in this life. And you need to stand up bold and proud and declare, "I have Holy Ghost diplomatic immunity. You can't touch me because I am an ambassador." >> Hallelujah. >> 2 Corinthians.

[00:44:30] >> Oh, I might as well finish reading chapter 2, uh, chapter 5 and verse 20 and 21. Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ. as though God did beseech you by us. We pray you. We're here praying. We're here talking to you instead of Jesus. What a responsibility. And what are they saying? Be reconciled to God. Not you dirty old thing you.

[00:45:00] Come back to Jesus. Come back to God. The debt's been paid. The balance has been taken care of. All you have to do is accept it. Come back to Christ. for he hath made him to be sin for us who knew no sin. The religious world will always tell you and there's there's there's something to this. The reason why Jesus done did all of those things is because he was Jesus.

[00:45:30] Actually, no. because he was a sinless man and he hath made him Jesus to be sin for us who knew no sin that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. How many of you know Jesus never knew sin? How many of you know you never knew righteousness? The books were swapped. The reconciliation has been successful. Now

[00:46:00] when you pray, you can pray as one who never sinned. & & See this condemnation comes on you when I say you're supposed to stand and say, "I am for Jesus Christ and I'm talking to you. I am here on Christ's behalf to tell you be reconciled to God." Well, I couldn't do that, you know, because you don't know what my past is like. You don't know what I did. That's right. But I know what he did. & & And he paid the price, buddy. I'm telling you, he paid the price for you. He paid the [snorts] price for your

[00:46:30] house. He paid the price for your mind. He paid the price for your sin. All you have to do is receive it by faith and walk circumspectly before him. & & 2 Corinthians chapter 2. 2 Corinthians chapter 2. Turn there very quickly. Very quickly. This is what I saw on the way there. Verse number 14. Now, thanks be unto God, which sometimes,

[00:47:00] & & you know, every once in a while if he feels like it, & & thanks be unto God, which always causes us to triumph in Christ and to make manifest the savor of his knowledge by us every place. the savor of his knowledge, the smell of his revelation. You know, the the thing that's connected more to memory than anything else is your sense of smell.

[00:47:30] And there's this there's this communication throughout scripture that in the Apostle Paul makes this connection that I don't know if you remember that story where um uh Isaac and Esau and you remember you remember somebody putting on some fur goat so he could feel like his brother to get the inheritance.

[00:48:00] And so he could smell like his brother to get the inheritance. And because the father was blind and he could only smell and feel, he gave the unworthy one the inheritance. Do you realize that what Jesus has done for you? that the father an impartial judge. Jesus has so cloaked you with his mantle and cloaked you with his anointing and cloaked you with his savor

[00:48:30] that when you go before the father the father goes [snorts] & & that smells like Jesus. I'm going to give them whatever they ask for. I'm going to give them whatever they that smells like Jesus. That feels like Jesus. Let's give them whatever they ask for. Whatever they ask for, give it to them in the name of Jesus. Just go like that to your neighbor. You smell like Jesus. Even if it's not true. Lie. Lie to him. Lie to him. Stand in faith.

[00:49:00] Everywhere you go, you bring this aroma with you that people in their spirit just goes. My office is upstairs in our home and oftentimes I'll be working up there and my wife while I'm working up there, my wife is working downstairs on some miracle in the kitchen and something starts wafting up the stairway, making its way down the hallway and it enters into my office and

[00:49:30] all of a sudden I am distracted from what's going on and I'm like one of those cartoon characters where, you know, I'm being carried by my nose down the hallway and this is the impact you have on the unregenerated world that when you're in the room there is this whiff of hope in the air that situations that were dire now the impossible seems possible. I don't know why when I get around you they may say I just feel so at peace and there's so much joy. I don't understand why I come through those doors and all of a sudden

[00:50:00] I feel inspired or I feel faith. It's the whiff of hope is in the air. Verse number 15. For we are unto God, a sweet savor unto Christ, to them that are saved, and to them that perish. To one we are the savor of death unto death, and the other the savor of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? But look at this next verse, verse 17. But we are not as many which corrupt the word. Oh, that's vitally important.

[00:50:30] Don't ever, ever replace his word with your word. Don't ever dilute or pollute his word with your word. We are not as many which corrupt the word of God with ill-gotten motives, putting a selfish motive behind a passage of scripture. We are not as many which corrupt the word of God, but as of sincerity, as of God, in the sight of God, speak we in Christ.

[00:51:00] as of God. You could you could say as God and the same meaning of the text applies because of means born of or sent from. But everybody says as God && in the sight of God && I speak && in Christ. && That's what a real prayer life is. By the way, it's not whether or not you

[00:51:30] prayed and you cried out and I didn't see anything because you didn't speak as God in the sight of God in Christ. If you will speak as God in the sight of God in Christ, you will see a lot more answers to your prayers. And so when we look at the world that we find ourselves in and we ask this question, what kind of person should we be in the midst of all these things? When we recognize how late the hour is, what kind of person should we be? And we talk about occupying until Jesus comes. How are we supposed to occupy? As [00:52:00] ambassadors with not an inflated sense of self, but an inflated sense of Christ in us, the hope of glory. Stand up with me just for a minute because I'm going to teach you how to pray over your situation now because you've been praying the wrong way. You've been saying, "Lord, won't you help me? Oh god, I don't know if I'm I don't know if I I'm not going to Does that sound like an ambassador of this kingdom? You sound like the Biden administration when you do that.

[00:52:30] A lot of bluster, but when push comes, you ain't got nothing behind it. The Biden administration said a lot about Maduro and Venezuela. You know what they did? You're going to have to get something behind you that's bigger than you. When you are praying over your situation, I want you to ask yourself, is this prayer representative of the kingdom? I mean, if you had your president standing in front of the [00:53:00] world, how would you want them to act? You have an ambassador. You know, if you could choose between an ambassador and being an ambassador and a congressperson or a senator, congress people and senators have no power. Ambassadors have the power. That's a much more powerful office. That's what you are. You have diplomatic immunity.

[00:53:30] You didn't know that lethal weapon would come in handy in your study of the Bible, did you? But it did, and it always will. Briggs and Mr. the greatest theologians of the 20th century. What are you facing right now? I just wonder with every head bowed, every eye closed, how many of you feel like, you know what, I need to ratchet up my prayer life. I need to ratchet up my

[00:54:00] representation of the kingdom. If we're going to win America and the church back to Christ, we have to become representatives. And I have to teach you to pray in Christstead. If you say, "I need to get this revelation." Just raise your hands up in the air. Just raise your hands. I need to get this revelation. Just raise it up. Raise it up. Yeah. You don't have to plead and beg. Mother Parsley told me this story. She →

Dominionist 'win America back' framing fused with strongman alignment

[00:54:30] was in a Katherine Kman service and they were just Baptist and they had heard about this healing service and they brought their [snorts] they brought their prayer request. I believe it was for their daughter. They came into the service. I forget who the prayer request was for. And as Kathern Kumman was coming by, Ellen Parsa began to plead and beg. Oh God. Oh God. Oh God. Oh God. Please. Oh God. Please. Please.

Please. → Dominionist 'win America back' framing fused with strongman alignment; 'Ambassadors don't beg' — selective canon-reading on prayer

[00:55:00] And Katherryn Kman pointed her flowing gown at Mama Parsley and said, "Don't ever beg God." The power of God hit her and knocked her back several rows. and she got up with a revelation of sunship. Ambassadors don't beg their kingdom. Neither do children beg their parents. You are the embodiment of your parents. Hallelujah. →

'Ambassadors don't beg' — selective canon-reading on prayer

[00:55:30] Every head bowed, every hand lifted. And I want to say that to you. Don't ever beg God. Every time you beg, every time you plead, every time you whimper, you show you have no clue or that you have disrespect for what Christ pro provided on the cross. He already paid for it. You don't have to beg for it. You just receive it by faith. Hallelujah.

[00:56:00] And father in the name of Jesus I pray an assurityity will come an assurance a peace that they will come to know who they are in Christ Jesus. They would meditate on what it is the blood provided on what it is the cross the resurrection provided. They would walk in that revelation. They are ambassadors, representatives of your kingdom and as such are not bound by the laws of

[00:56:30] this world. So I command depression go in Jesus name. We command in the name of Jesus anxiety leave that pain that is so common in this world because of the curse. We have immunity to that. We rebuke that now in Jesus' name. Satan, let them go or it will cause an international incident.

[00:57:00] We speak peace to your home. Now say this with me. As an ambassador && of the Lord Jesus Christ, && I stand && in Christstead. && Christ. && Now wait, wait, wait, wait. Let me ask you something. If Jesus was standing here right now pointing his finger at you, do you believe that whatever he said would come to pass? && Let me ask you this. Do you believe that the Bible says you and your house shall be saved?

[00:57:30] && So, we're about to say this and I want you to receive it as if Christ is saying it. && Say this with me. as an ambassador && as an ambassador of the Lord Jesus Christ and the kingdom of God. I speak to my house and I command it. && Be saved. && Be reconciled IN JESUS NAME. NOW CELEBRATE it like you believe. It's done. It's done. It's done. [music] It's done. Confuse the → The mocked-prosperity 'wealth transfer' framing vs. Jesus on wealth

[00:58:00] enemy with your celebration right now. Come on. Come on. You will never again doubt God's desire to bless you. When you get my latest book, 101 Prosperity Confessions, you're going to learn how to align your mouth with heaven's economy and unlock the blessings of God. For too long, we've been propagandized by a poverty mentality. And it's time for the body of Christ to rise up to receive the wealth transfer [music] and → The mocked-prosperity 'wealth transfer' framing vs. Jesus on wealth

[00:58:30] understand what God has promised from his word. So allow me if you will to take you through this devotional 101 days of scripture devotion and [music] confession that will renew your mind, transform your life, and help us as a church [music] advance the kingdom. Get your copy of 101 Prosperity Confessions today [music] and align your mouth with heaven's economy.

Methodology

Axis 1 — Fidelity to Jesus's Teachings: findings flag contradictions with, tensions against, or notable absences from Jesus's direct words in the four Gospels. Reference translation: ESV.

Axis 2 — Identifiable Biases / Harmful Rhetoric: co-equal sub-rubrics for Christian nationalism (Whitehead & Perry's Taking America Back for God; Du Mez, Jesus and John Wayne; Alberta, The Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory), anti-Muslim framing, anti-LGBTQ framing, misogynistic framing, and anti-Jewish framing. Findings weighted by reach × specificity × real-world harm potential.

Axis 3 — Factual Claims & Evidence Check: empirical claims extracted from the sermon are compared against independent scholarly, journalistic, and primary sources. Each claim receives a verdict (Supported · Partially supported · Contested · Misleading · Unsupported · False) and records whether the pastor cited evidence when making the claim (a rhetorical concern distinct from the empirical verdict). No verdict is rendered without a cited source.

Axis 4 — Whole-Bible Engagement: for each major framing in the sermon, the pastor's claim is placed side-by-side with Jesus's Gospel witness and with the wider biblical canon (OT and non-Gospel NT). This surfaces cherry-picking (citing a favorable verse while ignoring hostile ones on the same topic) and unacknowledged canonical tension (presenting one biblical voice as the biblical position when the scripture itself contains disagreement). Gospel citations are in ESV; OT and non-Gospel NT citations are in ESV.

Transcript source: YouTube auto-captions (YouTube video ID g9xWOA3fLj0). Auto-caption text may have minor transcription errors; quoted passages have been sanity-checked against the audio.

Report generated 2026-05-06 21:03 UTC.